Pension Reform In Europe Process And Progress:

Pension Reform in Europe Robert Holzmann, Mitchell Alexander Orenstein, Michal Rutkowski, 2003 The need for pension reform is an increasingly important issue on the economic reform agenda of most European countries although there has been considerable variation in the approaches adopted This publication contains a selection of papers from leading scholars and practitioners in the fields of economics and political science which seek to provide an insight into the process and progress of European pension reform and to highlight areas for further research

Pension Reform in Europe Robert Holzmann, 2002

Ideas and Welfare State Reform in Western Europe P. Taylor-Gooby, 2005-08-02 The new welfare settlement in Europe involves a re direction of policy in the context of a unified market and currency system and of more stringent economic competition Realignment of the policy assumptions and goals of the key actors is central to this process This book reviews the main policy paradigms and analyzes the processes whereby they have changed in the most salient policy areas and is based on recent interviews with more than two hundred and fifty senior policy actors in seven West European countries

Public Policy and the New European Agendas Fergus Carr, Andrew Massey, 2006-01-01 This broad and all encompassing study focuses on Europe s new policy agendas It brings together international academic experts on a range of policies to discuss Europe s place in the world and its relationship to the USA and beyond This book concentrates on two key themes of particular salience for policy makers the enlargement of the EU and the place of Europe in international politics An expansive list of important policy areas within these themes is explored including enlargement political and constitutional implications and international socialization of central and eastern Europe Europe and the USA security and defence policy trade finance and development institutional development and external relations in justice and home affairs before and after September 11 international terrorism EU immigration and asylum and borders policy human rights and civil rights agriculture environmental policy and regional policy pensions and ageing in Europe This book constitutes a major contribution to achieving a deeper understanding of European integration and the barriers to integration within the context of global and multi level governance As such it will be of enormous interest to an extensive audience including academics researchers students policy makers and practitioners in the fields of political studies international relations public policy European studies US studies and security studies

The Political Economy of Financial Market Regulation Peter Mooslechner, 2006 In this very nice volume reputed academics and central bankers discuss recent regulatory reforms in financial governance from a political economy perspective Therefore it is invaluable for both policymakers and scholars interested in financial governance and market regulation Sylvester C W Eijffinger Tilburg University The Netherlands Centre for Economic Policy Research UK and CESifo Research Network Munich Germany This book focuses on recent financial market reforms and their implications for social economic and political exclusion In particular it considers the hitherto under researched question of whose interests govern the design of regulatory mechanisms and who influences the decision making process This process is set out as contested terrain in which there are winners and losers and in which there are inevitably circles of exclusion The authors comprising financial authority experts and academic specialists expand the concept of exclusion beyond its typical social dimension to incorporate all actors be they individuals or institutions not permitted to contribute to financial market regulation as a public good As they point out this may take the form of political economic or indeed cultural exclusion The book examines the conflicts that arise between various interests and how these are managed within the process of regulation

Equality of Retirement Benefits Received by Men and Women in Selected European Countries: Childbearing and Future Benefits ,2008 Analyses the interrelationship between fertility and the retirement benefits of men and women and considers possible changes in old age pension systems to stimulate decisions on having children

Age Discrimination and Diversity Malcolm Sargeant,2011-08-04 This volume of essays is concerned with the discrimination against older people that results from a failure to recognise their diversity By considering the unique combinations of discrimination that arise from the interrelationship of age and gender pensions ethnicity sexual orientation socio economic class and disability the contributors demonstrate that the discrimination suffered is multiple in nature It is the combination of these characteristics that leads to the need for more complex ways of tackling age discrimination

Central and Eastern Europe ,2009-09-28 The collapse of communism in 1989 paved the way for the reunification of the continent This book analyzes the impact of the different dynamics of change since 1989 on public policy and on various economic and political sectors

Pension Reform and the Development of Pension Systems Emily S. Andrews,2006 Formal pension systems are an important means of reducing poverty among the aged In recent years however pension reform has become a pressing matter as demographic aging poor administration early retirement and unaffordable benefits have strained pension balances and overall public finances Pension systems have become a source of macroeconomic instability a constraint to economic growth and an ineffective and or inequitable provider of retirement income

Pension Reform World Bank,2006 This book is based on an international conference organized by the World Bank and the Swedish National Social Insurance board held in Sandhamn Sweden in October 2003 It addressed the question of what non financial or notional defined contribution plans NDCs bring to pension reform and presents 24 papers on the conceptual foundations and issues surrounding NDCs country implementation of NDCs Italy Latvia Poland and Sweden and case studies for countries where NDCs are figured in the reform debate

Labour Markets, Industrial Relations and Human Resources Management Roger Blanpain,2012-03-01 Social models are always contested and ambiguous This is particularly evident in the field of human resources management where decisions that ultimately affect the patterns of social relations are made every day This collection of in depth essays focuses on some central human resources elements gender youth ageing educational
