

Genesis 2:18-24
MARRIAGE AS GOD INTENDED IT
Rev. John E. Warmuth

The Lord God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper suitable for him."

Now the Lord God had formed out of the ground all the beasts of the field and all the birds of the air. He brought them to the man to see what he would name them; and whatever the man called each living creature, that was its name. So the man gave names to all the livestock, the birds of the air and all the beasts of the field.

But for Adam no suitable helper was found. So the Lord God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep, and while he was sleeping, he took one of the man's ribs and closed up the place with flesh. Then the Lord God made a woman from the rib he had taken out of the man, and he brought her to the man.

The man said, "This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh, she shall be called 'woman,' for she was taken out of man."

For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and they will become one flesh.

(I gather the younger children to the front for a message for them.)

Good morning! Are any of you married? No, of course not! None of you are old enough yet. But, do you know anybody who is married? (Let them answer.) Oh, you know lots of people who are married. When people get married they get one of these. (Show a marriage certificate.) This certificate shows that a man and a woman have made some very, very, special and important promises to each other. What are some of the promises that people make when they get married? (Let them answer.) One of the promises they make to each other is that they will stay with each other until they die. Do you think that is an important promise? Why? It is such an important promise that we heard Jesus say in today's gospel reading (Mark 2:12), "Therefore what God has joined together, let man not separate." Jesus said something very important about marriage there. He said, "What God has joined together." God joins a man and a woman together in marriage. That's what I'm going to talk about in today's sermon. Before I do that, let's pray for everyone who is married: "Dear Father in Heaven: Please help all people that are married to keep the promises that they made. Amen." (Send children back to pews.)

Dear Friends in Christ,

A marriage certificate- (hold up a copy) certainly it is one of the most important documents in a person's life. Some people scoff at it a bit, though, saying, "It's just a piece of paper." What they mean by that is that the piece of paper itself does not make a marriage, people make the marriage. There is certainly truth in that. We can discuss to great lengths the relative merits of a certificate of marriage and the attitudes of the couple toward marriage. There can be benefit in that. There is much more benefit to be gained in learning and following what God says about marriage. That's what we will do today.

Today's Old Testament reading records the beginning of marriage, how it began. Today's gospel lesson reaffirms what is said there. Together they show us MARRIAGE AS GOD INTENDED IT. Yes, AS GOD INTENDED IT! Marriage is not a custom of humanity. It is not a practice hominids developed
