Nordic Magic Healing Yves Kodratoff, 2003 Galdr is a song or howling by which a poem written in runes is made active Anthropological texts will often describe a healing ritual where the healer has been seen to mutter some indistinct words over the patient This book gives these mutterings back their true meaning and importance It will also explain their rational value by clearly stating the root causes of the sickness and explore their religious meaning The poetry and creativity of these chants combine to form a very effective healing technique albeit a very difficult one Many of you will be familiar with karate s scream that kills that came to us from the East We will explore the scream or song that heals called galdr by the Norse In this book galdr will be explored in two ways by looking at a new interpretation of the famous Finish epic Kalevala and by considering pagan charms from various parts of the world including two unexpected sources those from Lithuania not yet published and those from Hildegard von Bingen a German Christian visionary of the early twelfth century whose charms were not considered to be Pagan The Kalevala teaches us the twelve steps for physical healing and the nine steps for healing mental illness Old charms are used as a model for building new ones Healing Myths, Healing Magic Donald M. Epstein, 2011-07-08 The myths we accept without question have a powerful magically suggestive effect on the way we interpret our symptoms the way we heal and the quality of life we experience In this breakthrough book Dr Epstein contends that unless we question the myths that control our lives we will continue to make the same healing choices we have been conditioned to make even if those choices are killing us Epstein examines the deeply ingrained stories or myths we commonly hold about how our bodies heal myths that can actually inhibit healing The healing myths are divided into four categories Social Biomedical Religious and New Age He exposes each myth individually then suggests an alternative statement or Healing Magic to help us reclaim our body s natural ability to heal Magic, Body and the Self in Eighteenth-Century Sweden Jacqueline Van Gent, 2009 Contrary to previous assumptions magic remained an integral part of everyday life in Enlightenment Europe This book demonstrates that the endurance of magical practices both benevolent and malevolent was grounded in early modern perceptions of an interconnected body self and spiritual cosmos Drawing on eighteenth century Swedish witchcraft trials which are exceptionally detailed these notions of embodiment and selfhood are explored in depth The nuanced analysis of healing magic the role of emotions the politics of evidence and proof and the very ambiguity of magical rituals reveals a surprising syncretism of Christian and pre Christian elements The book provides a unique insight to the history of magic and witchcraft the study of eighteenth century religion and culture and to our understanding of body and self in the past Casting Shadows: DIY Black Magic Spells For The Modern Practitioner www.witchcraftvibes.com, Casting Shadows DIY Black Magic Spells For The Modern Practitioner delves into the world of black magic providing a comprehensive guide for those interested in practicing the dark arts The book explores the history of black magic its modern day practice and the ethics and responsibility associated with it Readers will gain insight into harnessing negative energy

Folk Traditions of the Arab World Hasan M. El-Shamy,1995 Negotiating a Presence-Centred Christian Counselling Simon Shui-Man Kwan,2016-04-26 How Christian is Christian counselling In what ways should one s counselling practice be conducted in order to fulfil one s role as a Christian counsellor Is there a counselling practice that truly penetrates into the secular approaches while remaining faithful to the Christian traditions of healing What are the theological roots of secular counselling How may secular counselling both reinforce and challenge the Christian faith In answering these questions this book engages readers to navigate between two frames of reference one Eastern secular social scientific and modern the other Western Christian theological and traditional At levels of both theory and practice this book undertakes to integrate synthesise hybridize revise dichotomize and antagonize the two It proposes a revised presence centred counselling approach which may serve as a perspective that helps us to see things in more depth as we shuttle back and forth between the two frames This book thus negotiates a revised presence centred form of counselling that is theologically grounded social scientifically informed and cross culturally sensitive As the author s counselling practice proceeds mainly in societies where Chinese is the majority the cross cultural examinations and proposals offered in this book have been bred in a space where Chinese culture meets the Christian Protestantism in particular West This book is an outgrowth of the author s experience teaching Christian counselling courses for 17 years and his 30 year clinical practice experience in places where East meets West namely Hong Kong and South China Guangdong Province
