People Nation And State:

People, Nation and State Edward Mortimer, Robert Fine, 1999-12-31 Nations in the developed world are no less immune from these complex issues whether they involve Scottish nationalism the rival national identities of Northern Ireland the uneasy integration of former GDR citizens into a united Germany the perennial problems of Afro Americans and Hispanics in the USA not to mention the myriad factors raised by the disappearance of the Soviet Union Citizenship, Belonging, and Nation-States in the Twenty-First Century Nicole Stokes-DuPass, Ramona Fruja, 2017-07-15 Citizenship Belonging and Nation States in the Twenty First Century contributes to the scholarship on citizenship and integration by examining belonging in an array of national settings and by demonstrating how nation states continue to matter in citizenship analysis Citizenship policies are positioned as state mechanisms that actively shape the integration outcomes and experiences of belonging for all who reside within the nation state This edited volume contributes an alternative to the promotion of post national models of membership and emphasizes that the most fundamental facet of citizenship a status of recognition in relationship to a nation state need not be left in the relic galleries of an allegedly outdated political past This collection offers a timely contribution both theoretical and empirical to understanding citizenship nationalism and belonging in contexts that feature not only rapid change but also levels of entrenchment in ideological and historical legacies Routledge Handbook of State, Nation and Nationalism in South Asia Amit Ranjan, 2026-03-30 The Routledge Handbook of State Nation and Nationalism in South Asia analyses the nature of postcolonial South Asian states examines enduring debates on nation and nationalism and investigates the role of interconnected structure and agency in constructing an idea of nation and nationalism in respective South Asian countries Following an introduction by the editor the book is structured in three parts Part I Nature of State Part II Imagining a Nation and Nation Making and Part III Contesting Nationalism Written by a mix of established and young scholars on South Asian politics and related disciplines this handbook explores the following pertinent questions about the region What is the nature of the State Who identifies which identity groups are part of the nation and who are the others What is the dominant form of nationalism Why do identity based differences and conflict exist A useful guide and reference work this handbook will be of interest to students and researchers of South Asian Studies and related disciplines The French Imperial Nation-State Gary Wilder, 2005-12 France experienced a period of crisis following World War I when the relationship between the nation and its colonies became a subject of public debate The French Imperial Nation State focuses on two intersecting movements that redefined imperial politics colonial humanism led by administrative reformers in West Africa and the Paris based Negritude project comprising African and Caribbean elites Gary Wilder develops a sophisticated account of the contradictory character of colonial government and examines the cultural nationalism of Negritude as a multifaceted movement rooted in an alternative black public sphere He argues that interwar France must be understood as an imperial nation state an integrated sociopolitical system that linked a parliamentary republic to an administrative empire

An interdisciplinary study of colonial modernity combining French history colonial studies and social theory The French Imperial Nation State will compel readers to revise conventional assumptions about the distinctions between republicanism and racism metropolitan and colonial societies and national and transnational processes State / Space Neil Brenner, Bob Jessop, Martin Jones, Gordon Macleod, 2008-04-15 This groundbreaking interdisciplinary volume brings together diverse analyses of state space in historical and contemporary capitalism The first volume to present an accessible yet challenging overview of the changing geographies of state power under capitalism A unique interdisciplinary collection of contributions by major theorists and analysts of state spatial restructuring in the current era Investigates some of the new political spaces that are emerging under contemporary conditions of globalization Explores state restructuring on multiple spatial scales and from a range of theoretical methodological and empirical perspectives Covers a range of topical issues in contemporary geographical political economy Contains case study material on Western Europe North America and East Asia as well as parts of Africa and South America The Routledge Companion to Historical Theory Chiel van den Akker, 2021-11-15 This Companion provides a wide ranging and up to date overview of the conceptual issues that history as a discipline and mode of thought gives rise to The book offers both historical and systematic treatments of these issues as well as addressing their contemporary relevance Structured in three parts Modes and Schools of Historical Thought Epistemology and Metaphysics of History and Issues and Challenges in Historical Theory it offers the reader a wide scope and expert treatment of each topic in this vibrant field that can be read in any order An international team of experts both discuss the basis of their topic and present their own view offering the reader a cutting edge contribution while ensuring their chapters are of interest to both students and specialists in the field of historical theory and engaging with the very nature of historical thought the metaphysics of historical existence the politics of history writing and the intelligibility of the historical process The volume is an indispensable companion to the study of history and essential reading for anyone interested in the reflection on the nature of history and our historical existence The Government of Pennsylvania and the Nation Clinton D. Higby, 1909 The Maccabæan, 1916 Illinois and the Nation Oliver R. Trowbridge, Gilbert P. Randle, 1917 The Outlook Lyman Abbott, Hamilton Wright Mabie, Ernest Hamlin Abbott, Francis Rufus Bellamy, 1908 Constitutional Law and Politics of Secession Antoni Abat i Ninet, 2023-07-31 This collection presents an analysis of the concept of secession and its constitutional accommodation alongside an assessment of the effects of secession in constitutional and international law The work proposes a new approach and insights into the existing literature that fill a gap from multidisciplinary and transdisciplinary perspectives The book approaches the topics of secession constitutionalism and their relationship from both theoretical and empirical perspectives including the analysis of particular secessionist examples such as Catalonia the Basque Country Tigray the Palestinian minority in Israel Bosnia and Herzegovina and the Mapuche Nation from a comparative constitutional perspective Elucidating these issues from different methodological and conceptual perspectives produces novelties in the scientific and constitutional debate The interplay between constitutions constitutional law and secession is indeed explored from philosophical socio legal but also from strict constitutional law outlooks Written by constitutional and public international law experts the book will be of interest to students academics and researchers working in the areas of constitutional law legal theory theory of the state philosophy of law and political science

The Debates in the Several State Conventions on the Adoption of the Federal Constitution Jonathan Elliot,1876 The Global and Regional in China's Nation-Formation Prasenjit Duara,2008-12 Covers the major historical problems of China in the twentieth century namely imperialism nationalism state building religion and the role of history from the perspective of global and regional circulations and interactions

The American Nation Albert Bushnell Hart,1906

Migration Matters Paromita Chakrabarti,2026-03-24 The book explores the politics of gendered belonging in the South Asian SA diaspora through the lens of migration It focuses on the lives of contemporary postcolonial SA migrants particularly women through a critical analysis of select South Asian diaspora literature It brings together authors who have not previously been discussed collectively examining their works to uncover the nuanced interplay between homeland hostland and diaspora Focusing on postcolonial South Asian women it critically analyzes works by Sorayya Khan Meena Alexander Sara Suleri Anita Desai and Kiran Desai to explore the interplay of homeland hostland and diaspora Unpacking the grammar of dislocation displacement border crossing and relocation Migration Matters uses a postcolonial theoretical lens to assess the impact of colonialism and modernity on the production of diasporic subjectivities and the construction of diasporic communities Engaging with the concept of a diaspora space that both separates and merges boundaries of inclusion and exclusion this book delves into the triad of homeland hostland and diaspora highlighting the processes of exchange negotiation and contestation Being attentive to how material conditions of globalization produce culturally specific diasporic subjects Migration Matters engages with the idea of transnationality as a diasporic condition but without ignoring the national racial class and gender differences Addressing the contemporary condition of transnationality the book considers how globalization shapes culturally specific diasporic subjects It examines the persistent connections transnational migrants maintain with their homelands and how identities are configured across multiple nation states Spanning texts from 1989 to 2006 Migration Matters maps the shifts in nation and diaspora particularly post 9 11 world It is an essential read for scholars and students in South Asian diaspora studies postcolonial literature gender and cultural studies migration and transnationalism
