Puzzling Through Mark:

Puzzling Through Mark Carine MacKenzie, 1999-11-30 Mark Through Old Testament Eyes Andrew T. Le Peau, 2017-09-27 Through Old Testament Eyes is a new kind of commentary series that opens the New Testament writings in greater depth to anyone committed to understanding or teaching Scripture In this inaugural volume the richness of Old Testament allusions and background in Mark clarifies puzzling passages and explains others in fresh ways The exodus motif structures Mark Mark also presents Jesus as the true temple of God in contrast to the existing temple which has been corrupted These important themes are hidden to modern eyes without the insight of an Old Testament perspective and this commentary builds on that insight to emphasize how the gospel applies to the daily lives of Christians today Unlocking the Puzzle David Oliver Smith, 2016-11-22 A shorter simpler first draft of the Gospel of Mark has been theorized by New Testament scholars for almost two hundred years Using literary tools David Oliver Smith strips away interpolation and redaction from the canonical Gospel to reveal that long sought first draft the Original Gospel of Mark Original Mark shorter than the canonical version and with several large blocks of text replaced in their original locations reveals a coherent structure and a different picture of who Jesus is But it is anything other than simple The Original Gospel also presents puzzles for the curious reader of Mark to solve and Smith has found the keys to their solution Analysis of the text that was interpolated into Mark reveals who that redactor might have been Evidence is presented that it was the author of the Gospel of Luke who redacted the first written Gospel jumbled its structure and changed its Christology Follow the analysis of literary structures created by the genius who wrote Mark's Gospel and discover the astounding design of the Original Gospel of Mark

Redescribing the Gospel of Mark Barry S. Crawford, Merrill P. Miller, 2017-06-16 A collaborative project with a variety of critical essays This final volume of studies by members of the Society of Biblical Literature's consultation and later seminar on Ancient Myths and Modern Theories of Christian Origins focuses on Mark As with previous volumes the provocative proposals on Christian origins offered by Burton L Mack are tested by applying Jonathan Z Smith's distinctive social theorizing and comparative method Essays examine Mark as an author's writing in a book culture a writing that responded to situations arising out of the first Roman Judean war after the destruction of the Jerusalem temple in 70 CE Contributors William E Arnal Barry S Crawford Burton L Mack Christopher R Matthews Merrill P Miller Jonathan Z Smith and Robyn Faith Walsh explore the southern Levant as a plausible provenance of the Gospel of Mark and provide a detailed analysis of the construction of Mark as a narrative composed without access to prior narrative sources about Jesus A concluding retrospective follows the work of the seminar its developing discourse and debates and the continuing work of successor groups in the field Features A thorough examination of the relation between structure and event in social and anthropological theory that provides conceptual tools for representing the project of the author of Mark An exploration of the southern Levant as a plausible provenance of the Gospel a permanent site of successive imperial regimes and culturally related peoples A detailed analysis of the construction of Mark as a narrative composed without access to prior narrative sources about Jesus

Writing on the Gospel of Mark W.R. Telford, 2019-05-21 This thorough manual for advanced students and their supervisors and anyone researching or writing on the Gospel of Mark is the opening volume in an important new series of Guides to Advanced Biblical Research Together with an essay on the current state of research and a discussion of the future of Markan study it provides a chrestomathy of samples of Markan research together with a review of recent dissertations and a full annotated bibliography

John's Relationship with Mark Ian D. Mackay, 2004 This book is a literary historical enquiry into the relationship between John and Mark with special emphasis on the feeding saga in each Because of the differences between these key canonised texts the question of how their differences are to be understood is important in regard to our understanding of Biblical authority and interpretation and in particular of the meaning and importance of the Eucharist The research finds that the writers of John's Gospel knew Mark and that John shows a certain degree of influence from it both positive and negative Ian D. Mackay surveys the debate to date looks at general literary and strategic similarities and differences between John and Mark and then analyses John 6 in comparison with Mark 6:8 and certain other related texts in Mark The detailed analysis of the debate the points of literary similarity between the two Gospels as a whole and the emergence of Markan strategies lifted from Mark and applied in John to supporting a literary agenda virtually contrary to that of Mark especially in regard to the roles of the disciples and the crowds in the plot of each as a whole may well be useful for those interested in the question of how the four Gospels relate to one another
