Genius, Power and Magic Roderick Cavaliero,2013-04-26 Before unification Germany was a loose collection of variously sovereign principalities nurtured on deep thought fine music and hard rye bread It was known across Europe for the plentiful supply of consorts to be found among its abundant royalty but the language and culture was largely incomprehensible to those outside its lands In the long eighteenth and nineteenth centuries between the end of the Thirty Years War in 1648 and unification under Bismarck in 1871 Germany became the land of philosophers poets writers and composers This particularly German cultural movement was able to survive the avalanche of Napoleonic conquest and exploitation and its impact was gradually felt far beyond Germany s borders In this book Roderick Cavaliero provides a fascinating overview of Germany s cultural zenith in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries He considers the work of Germany s own artistic exports the literature of Goethe and Grimm the music of Wagner Schumann Mendelssohn and Bach and the philosophy of Schiller and Kant as well as the impact of Germany on foreign visitors from Coleridge to Thackeray and from Byron to Disraeli Providing a comprehensive and highly readable account of Germany s cultural life from Frederick the Great to Bismarck Genius Power and Magic is fascinating reading for anyone interested in European history and cultural history

Love, 2016-10-24 This volume provides the first comprehensive text edition of the Egyptian language sections of P Biblioth que Nationale Supplement Grec 574 PGM IV and analysis of their script language and the bilingual spells which they are part of The magical practices preserved in the PDM and PGM have been published for nearly a century yet it is only recently that research has focused on investigating the complex relationship between the languages scripts and religious traditions they exhibit as well as the question of who composed copied and practiced these spells Focusing on the bilingual divinatory spells and exorcism of PGM IV written in the Egyptian and Greek languages and rendered in Old Coptic scripts and the Greek script respectively this volume analyses their textual content and ritual mechanics contextualised among the PDM and PGM and investigates the potential identities of the magical practitioners of late Roman and Late Antique Egypt Encompassing the disciplines of Egyptology Coptology Papyrology and Late Antique studies this volume focuses in particular on the themes of magical practice bilingualism script and the social context of magic in Egypt during the 2nd to 4th centuries CE     New Approaches to the Great Paris Magical Codex Christopher A. Faraone, Sofía Torallas-Tovar, 2026-04-21 The Biblioth que Nationale de France preserves an extraordinary document a fourth century CE papyrus codex from Upper Egypt This handbook is over seventy inscribed pages long and is equivalent in length to four or five normal sized papyrus rolls But despite its great size it contains only fifty three recipes many of unusual length and complexity Our research team on the Transmission of Magical Knowledge project has been studying re editing and translating all the magical handbooks from Roman Egypt and in the process we have realized that the Paris Codex from Upper Egypt long understood as the typical or model handbook of the age is in fact a marvelous outlier in the group The manuscript was probably never used for the preparation of quotidian magical spells but rather as a book to be read and to fire the imagination of its readers We propose in this volume a complete re assessment of GEMF 57 not only of its materiality scribal production and its language but also of its composition in different blocks coming from divergent exemplars The book is distributed into five sections 1 Materiality of GEMF 57 including codicology paleography and scribal practice 2 Language and Rhetoric 3 Poetry on the metrical sections 4 Special sections including chapters on the Mithras Liturgy the collapse of Solomon and the Epistolary section 5 Special topics on astrology and Egyptian influence     The Theosophical Path Katherine Augusta Westcott Tingley, 1920     The Forum , 1929 Current political social scientific education and literary news written about by many famous authors and reform movements     Nostrums and Quackery and Pseudo-medicine American Medical Association, 1921     Records & Briefs ,     Psychotherapeutic Approaches Richard A.
