Modality In Grammar And Discourse Typological Studies In Language:

Modality in Grammar and Discourse Joan L. Bybee, Suzanne Fleischman, 1995-08-21 This volume brings together a collection of 18 papers that look into the expression of modality in the grammars of natural languages with an emphasis on its manifestations in naturally occurring discourse Though the individual contributions reflect a diversity of languages of synchronic and diachronic foci and of theoretical orientations all within the broad domain of functional linguistics they nonetheless converge around a number of key issues the relationship between mood and modality the delineation of modal categories and their nomenclature the grounding of modality in interactive discourse the elusive category irrealis and the relationship of modal notions and categories to other categories of grammar Complementizer Semantics in European Languages Kasper Boye, Petar Kehayov, 2016-07-11 Complementizers may be defined as conjunctions that have the function of identifying clauses as complements In recent years it has become increasingly clear that they have additional functions Some of these functions are semantic in the sense that they represent conventional contributions to the meanings of the complements The present book puts a focus to these semantic complementizer functions Clause Linking and Clause Hierarchy Isabelle Bril, 2010 This collective volume explores clause linkage strategies in a cross linguistic perspective with greater emphasis on subordination Part I presents some theoretical reassessment of syntactic terminologies and distinctive criteria for subordination as well as typological methods based on sets of variables and statistics allowing cross linguistic comparability Part II deals with strategies relating to clause chaining conjunctive conjugations converbial constructions masdars Part III centers on the interaction between the syntax pragmatics and semantics of clause linking and subordination in relation to information structure to referential hierarchy and correlative constructions Part IV presents insights in the clause linking and subordinating functions of some T A M markers verbal inflectional morphology and conjugation systems which may also interact with information hierarchy via the backgrounding effects and lack of illocutionary force of some aspect and mood forms The volume is of particular interest to linguists and typologists working on clause linkage systems and on the interface between syntax pragmatics and semantics Compulsion and Control in Ancient Egypt Alexandre Loktionov, 2023-12-07 How did the Ancient Egyptians maintain control of their state Topics include the controlling function of temples and theology state borders scribal administration visual representation patronage and the Egyptian language itself with reference to all periods of Egyptian history from the Old Kingdom to Coptic times Linguistic Typology, 2000

Re-Assessing Modalising Expressions Pascal Hohaus, Rainer Schulze, 2020-11-15 Mood modality and evidentiality are popular and dynamic areas in linguistics Re Assessing Modalising Expressions Categories co text and context focuses on the specific issue of the ways language users express permission obligation volition intention possibility and ability necessity and prediction linguistically Using a range of evidence and corpus data collected from different sources the authors of this volume examine the distribution and functions of a range of patterns involving modalising expressions as predominantly found in standard American English British English or Hong Kong English but also in Japanese The authors are particularly interested in addressing co textual manifestations of modalising expressions as well as their distribution across different text types and thus filling a gap research was unable to plug in the past Thoughts on categorising or re categorising modalising expressions initiate and complement a multi perspectival enterprise that is intended to bring research in this area a step forward

Impersonal Constructions Andrej Malchukov,Anna Siewierska,2011-07-20 This volume offers a much needed typological perspective on impersonal constructions which are here viewed broadly as constructions lacking a referential subject The contributions to this volume deal with all types of impersonality namely constructions featuring nonagentive subjects including those with experiential predicates A impersonals presentational constructions with a notional subject deficient in topicality T impersonals and constructions with a notional subject lacking in referential properties R impersonals i e both meteo constructions and man constructions The typological discussion benefits from a good coverage of impersonality in European languages but also includes considerations of several African American South East Asian Australian and Oceanic languages The variation in the cross linguistic realization of impersonality and the diachronic pathways leading to and from impersonality documented in this volume point to a novel perspective on impersonals as transitional structures or an intermediate stage of a more basic diachronic change be it from transitive to intransitive or from active to passive or participant to event centered construction

Discourse, Grammar and Typology Werner Abraham,T. Givón,Sandra A. Thompson,1995-02-10 This volume combines papers selected for their affinity with work on discourse analysis and language typology The methodological platform is the authors conviction that all linguistic work needs to be empirical in the sense that 1 generalizations are to be made on the basis of spoken texts in larger contexts 2 generalizations are correct only as long as pertinent linguistic material does not contradict them and 3 that linguistic categories and rules are of a temporal nature In this sense the contributions represent functional typological comparison often of languages not frequently investigated The papers are arranged in 5 groups Transitivity and voice Clausal modality Typology and discourse categories Language and Culture Functionality

Studies in Language ,1994 Modes of Modality Elisabeth Leiss,Werner Abraham,2014-01-15 The volume aims at a universal definition of modality or illocutionary speaker s perspective force that is strong enough to capture the entire range of different subtypes and varieties of modalities in different languages The central idea is that modality is all pervasive in language This perspective on modality allows for the integration of covert modality as well as peripheral instances of modality in neglected domains such as the modality of insufficiency of attitudinality or neglected domains such as modality and illocutionary force in finite vs nonfinite and factive vs non factive subordinated clauses In most languages modality encompasses modal verbs both in their root and epistemic meanings at least where these languages have the principled distribution between root and epistemic modality in the first place which is one fundamentally restricted in its strict qualitative and quantitative sense to the Germanic languages In addition this volume discusses one other intricate and partially highly mysterious class of modality triggers modal particles as they are sported in the Germanic languages except for English It is argued in the contributions and the languages discussed in this volume how modal verbs and adverbials next to modal particles are expressed how they are interlinked with contextual factors such as aspect definiteness person verbal factivity and assertivity as opposed to other attitudinal types An essential concept used and argued for is perspectivization a sub concept of possible world semantics Language groups covered in detail and compared are Slavic Germanic and South East Asian The volume will interest researchers in theoretical and applied linguistics typology the semantics pragmatics interface and language philosophy as it is part of a larger project developing an alternative approach to Universal Grammar that is compatible with functionalist approaches Lund Studies in English ,1933 Language Typology and Language Universals Martin Haspelmath,2001 No detailed description available for Language Typology and Language Universals 2 Teilband Approaches to the Typology of Word Classes Petra Maria Vogel,Bernard Comrie,2000 No detailed description available for Approaches to the Typology of Word Classes Poznań Studies in Contemporary Linguistics ,2007 The Semantics and Discourse Function of Habitual-iterative Verbs in Contemporary Czech David S. Danaher,2003 Santa Barbara Papers in Linguistics ,1999 Functions of Language ,1994 Markedness in Canaanite and Hebrew Verbs Paul D. Korchin,2008 By applying markedness to Semitic morphology in a rigorous manner this book brings to bear a venerable linguistic construct on a persistent philological crux in order to achieve deeper clarity in the structures and workings of Canaanite and Hebrew verbs Algonquian and Iroquoian Linguistics ,1996 Papers from the ... International Conference on Historical Linguistics ,2001
