F. Antonisamy

Religious Life Today:

The Fire in These Ashes Joan Chittister, 1995 Joan Chittister writes from the perspective of decades of deep involvement in religious life She writes about religious life in the here and now not about the value of its past nor about the possible shape of its future asking a simple question What if anything constitutes the spirituality of contemporary religious life What is the work of religious life now What are the virtues demanded of religious now that take character and test commitment that make the world closer to the reign of God and bring a person closer to the Truth of life Provided by publisher An Introduction to Christian Spirituality F. Antonisamy, 2000

Prophetic Witnesses to Joy Juliet Mousseau, 2021-11-08 A life of consecration prefigures what Christians hope for by calling into question the value of power sexuality and material possessions Religious life challenges the idea that these things alone bring happiness and shows that we can be more fulfilled happier and more whole without being attached to them Furthermore detaching ourselves from these desires allows others to live with more dignity and greater ease as well Consecrated life then is a prophetic witness to the joy of the eschatological call of Christianity In the words of Pope Francis to religious men and women leading up to the Year of Consecrated Religious Wake up the world Be witnesses of a different way of doing things of acting of living Becoming Apostolic Catherine Sexton, 2024-07-01 This book explores the experience and understanding of Roman Catholic sisters of their vocation to the apostolic form of religious life as they age Based on interviews with twelve religious women it draws on the practice of Lectio Divina to explore how these women describe their call to service and activity at a time in life when these might be curtailed by physical diminishment and increasingly reduced social interaction and influence As the very institutions of religious life are themselves under threat the book identifies new emerging forms of ministry through presence to each other and to their carers

New Faces, New Possibilities Center for Applied Research in the Apostolate (CARA), 2022-05-14 Religious sisters have created educational and healthcare systems over the past two hundred years that have transformed the Catholic community in the United States Through their ministry sisters have served waves of immigrants and those pushed to the margins The growing cultural diversity of newer sisters and the diminishing number of older sisters therefore is both a challenge and a creative moment to be critically examined This book examines these changes in culture and ethnicity among sisters the structural impact of diminishing numbers and the creative response to this new reality for religious life in the United States In it sisters from a variety of generations cultures and institutes join with the Center for Applied Research in the Apostolate CARA researchers to examine and reflect on CARA s recent research findings and their impact on the life and ministry of sisters today

Augustine to Freud Kenneth Boa, 2004 Six theologians and eight psychologists from history square off finding both differences and common ground in their thinking on the most basic human needs The Disciples' Call Christopher Jamison, OSB, 2013-12-05 This book traces the development of vocation from scriptural patristic roots through Thomism and the Reformation to engage with the modern vocational crisis How are these approaches compatible Is some sense of a higher calling part of the Catholic theology of vocation or not Jamison explores this neglected yet vital aspect of Church life

An Exploration into Dominican Spirituality Erik Borgman, 2024-08-01 My aim in this book is to show clearly that the Dominican tradition is capable of shedding light on the questions of men and women today and suggesting a way of dealing with them These questions are ultimately a variant of the one central question of human existence bound up with a particular time place and person the question of a good and meaningful life my starting point is the basic conviction that a religious and dedicated life cannot be lived anywhere else than in the midst of our turbulent culture which constantly makes us uncertain this book is deliberately written from the perspective of someone who in ecclesiastical jargon is called a lay person From the Introduction by Erik Borgman This book is a highly attractive and stimulating exposition of Dominican spirituality by Erik Borgman a Dutch Lay Dominican The central intuition of the book is that Dominican spirituality is founded on the encounter of God in all of human experience Dominic s experience in the early thirteenth century was born in opposition to Catharism which maintained that God was remote from us and that there was a fundamental opposition between the divine and this material world But for Dominic it is here in our lives with all their creativity and goodness their mess and confusion that God is to be found Our mission as preachers pushes us to enter the unrest of the street and the inn politics and journalism welfare teaching and science in the belief that the holy the traces of the Holy One are to be found there Even in the most difficult situations when all is dark God is waiting to be discovered If Dominican spirituality has a core then it would be this insight into the unexpected and unheard of nearness of God This is the good news that the Order of Preachers was founded to preach and the source of the happiness of the preacher From the Foreword by Timothy Radcliffe OP

how the hermeneutic of rupture is an incorrect reading of Vatican II Rather the Council in addressing numerous issues did not break from the past but rather sought to understand Church teaching in more contemporary ways but with continuity to the Tradition Essays in this section describe this misreading of Vatican II the consequent misunderstanding of the evangelical counsels and the rejection of religious signs The second section through an analysis of the writings of Hans Urs von Balthasar Basile Moreau Pope Benedict XVI and a reflection on Perfectae Caritatis provides a solution of Christian love as the operative way to reform apostolic religious life today ABOUT THE EDITOR Richard Gribble C S C is professor of religious studies at Stonehill College He has written four critical biographies including American Apostle of the Family Rosary The Life of Patrick J Peyton C S C and An Archbishop for the People The Life of Edward J Hanna He is a frequent contributor to many journals including The Catholic Historical Review American Catholic Studies and the Journal of Church and State PRAISE FOR THE BOOK This book is a true service to those seeking to understand consecrated apostolic life whether they are themselves members of religious orders and congregations or are among those who love the vocation esteem religious Sisters and desire that this calling be strengthened in the Church Francis Cardinal George O M I Archbishop of Chicago Finally a book that explains why some attempts of religious congregations to renew themselves after Vatican II succeeded and why so many failed Understanding the radical nature of what the vows really require of a religious community is no small achievement The vision of religious consecration set forth in these essays will be a fine road map for the many new groups springing up out of a desire to serve Christ and the Church Joseph W Koterski S J Professor of Philosophy Fordham University Without a doubt religious life in America today is at a turning point We are well aware of the factors that have brought us to this moment The more interesting and important question is where do we go from here Some have predicted the death of consecrated life as we know it while others have anticipated renewal and re birth This volume indeed views all of religious life in the continuum of the Lord s Paschal Mystery death and resurrection but gives us hope that the call to follow the Lord through the evangelical counsels is far from its predicted end Most Reverend David M O Connell C M J C D Bishop of Trenton A very significant collection of essay     American Journal of Theology ,1903 Vols 2 6 include Theological and Semitic literature for 1898 1901 a bibliographical supplement to the American journal of theology and the American journal of Semitic languages and literatures By W Muss Arnolt Separately paged     The American Journal of Theology University of Chicago.
