Edward John Hamilton

Remembrance Past And Present:

The Confessions Saint Augustine (Bishop of Hippo.),1876 Listening, Belonging, and Memory Abigail Gardner,2023-07-13 Listening Belonging and Memory puts connected listening at the center of current debates around whose voices might be listened to who by and why Arguing that listening has to be understood in relation to the self nation age witnessing and memory it uses examples from digital storytelling listening projects and critical media analysis to highlight connections between listening and power It centers on voices stories and silence how they interweave and are activated maneuvered reconfigured and denied It focuses on the small microengagements that crouch within the superstructures of violent border control and the censorious policing of sonic citizenry identifying cracks in the reshuffling of histories and hierarchies that connected listening affords Time and memory in reggae music Sarah Daynes,2013-07-19 On the basis of a body of reggae songs from the 1970s and late 1990s this book offers a sociological analysis of memory hope and redemption in reggae music From Dennis Brown to Sizzla the way in which reggae music constructs a musical religious and socio political memory in rupture with dominant models is vividly illustrated by the lyrics themselves How is the past remembered in the present How does remembering the past allow for imagining the future How does collective memory participate in the historical grounding of collective identity What is the relationship between tradition and revolution between the recollection of the past and the imagination of the future between passivity and action Ultimately this case study of memory at work opens up a theoretical problem the conceptualization of time and its relationship with memory
