

Poems about Protesting

Voices in the Crowd

In the sea of faces, a whisper began,
One voice, then two, defying the plan.
Each cry, each plea, growing ever loud,
A symphony of protest, a collective proud.

Rising against oppression, they took the street,
Marching as one, to the rhythm of heartbeats.
With banners held high and fists in the air,
They showed the world the power of care.

For the voice of the many can't be suppressed,
Together they stand, in unity expressed.
Hoping for change, with resolve they stride,
For in numbers and unity, truth can't hide.
