most brilliant black writer of his generation when his first book of essays Notes of a Native Son established his reputation in 1955 No one was more pleased by the book's reception than Baldwin's high school friend Sol Stein A rising New York editor novelist and playwright Stein had suggested that Baldwin do the book and coaxed his old friend through the long and sometimes agonizing process of putting the volume together and seeing it into print Now in this fascinating new book Sol Stein documents the story of his intense creative partnership with Baldwin through newly uncovered letters photos inscriptions and an illuminating memoir of the friendship that resulted in one of the classics of American literature Included in this book are the two works they created together the story Dark Runner and the play Equal in Paris both published here

Nothing mattered more to either of them than telling and writing the truth which was not always welcome As Stein wrote Baldwin in a long heartfelt letter You are the only friend with whom I feel comfortable about all three heart head and writing
In this extraordinary book Stein unfolds how that shared passion played out in the months surrounding the creation and
