

Political Communication

Best Practice

VS

Worst Practice

- Communicates verifiable information at all times

- Relies on spin and propaganda as preferred mode of communication

- Builds trust by telling and showing verifiable action on promises and commitments

- Erodes trust by not being able to tell and show verifiable action on promises and commitments

- Uses communication to build bridges with various segments of the electorate

- Uses divisive language to stoke tensions; promotes a 'them vs us' narrative

- Progressively builds a credible brand for the candidate and the administration

- Progressively damages the public credibility of the candidate and the administration

- Effectively manages issues and crisis and enhances public trust and government credibility in the process

- Unable to effectively manage issues and crisis without damaging public trust
