Prairyerth A Deep Map:

Prairyerth William Least Heat Moon, 1991 Details the author's journey through the 744 square miles and meeting the 3 000 inhabitants of Chase County Kansas Literary Mapping in the Digital Age David Cooper, Christopher Donaldson, Patricia Murrieta-Flores, 2016-05-20 Drawing on the expertise of leading researchers from around the globe this pioneering collection of essays explores how geospatial technologies are revolutionizing the discipline of literary studies The book offers the first intensive examination of digital literary cartography a field whose recent and rapid development has yet to be coherently analysed This collection not only provides an authoritative account of the current state of the field but also informs a new generation of digital humanities scholars about the critical and creative potentials of digital literary mapping The book showcases the work of exemplary literary mapping projects and provides the reader with an overview of the tools techniques and methods those projects employ The Routledge Handbook of Geospatial Technologies and Society Alexander J. Kent, Doug Specht, 2023-08-17 The Routledge Handbook of Geospatial Technologies and Society provides a relevant and comprehensive reference point for research and practice in this dynamic field It offers detailed explanations of geospatial technologies and provides critical reviews and appraisals of their application in society within international and multi disciplinary contexts as agents of change The ability of geospatial data to transform knowledge in contemporary and future societies forms an important theme running throughout the entire volume Contributors reflect on the changing role of geospatial technologies in society and highlight new applications that represent transformative directions in society and point towards new horizons Furthermore they encourage dialogue across disciplines to bring new theoretical perspectives on geospatial technologies from neurology to heritage studies The international contributions from leading scholars and influential practitioners that constitute the Handbook provide a wealth of critical examples of these technologies as agents of change in societies around the globe The book will appeal to advanced undergraduates and practitioners interested or engaged in their application worldwide Spatial Anthropology Les Roberts, 2018-06-20 Spatial Anthropology draws together a number of interrelated strands of research focused on landscape place and cultural memory in the north west of England At the core of the book lies an engagement with the methodological opportunities offered by new interdisciplinary frameworks of research and practice that have emerged in the wake of a putative spatial turn in arts and humanities scholarship in recent years The spatial methods explored in the book represent a consolidation of site specific interventions enacted in landscapes located in the north west and beyond Utilising digital tools and geospatial technologies alongside ethnographic performative and autoethnographic modes of spatio cultural analysis spatial anthropology is presented as a geographically immersive and critically reflexive set of practices designed to explore the embodied and increasingly multi faceted spatialities of place mobility and memory From the radically placeless environment of a motorway traffic island to the affective archipelago of former cinema sites or the songlines and micro geographies of musical memory Spatial Anthropology offers a rich tapestry of landscapes practices and spatial stories that speaks to both the particularities of place and locality as well as the more delocalised topographies of regional national and global mobility

The Routledge Handbook of Cartographic Humanities Tania Rossetto, Laura Lo Presti, 2024-06-03 The Routledge Handbook of Cartographic Humanities offers a vibrant exploration of the intersection and convergence between map studies and the humanities through the multifaceted traditions and inclinations from different disciplinary geographical and cultural contexts With 42 chapters from leading scholars this book provides an intellectual infrastructure to navigate core theories critical concepts phenomenologies and ecologies of mapping while also providing insights into exciting new directions for future scholarship It is organised into seven parts Part 1 moves from the depths of the humans maps relation to the posthuman dimension from antiquity to the future of humanity presenting a multidisciplinary perspective that bridges chronological distances introspective instances and social engagements Part 2 draws on ancient archaeological historical and literary sources to consider the materialities and textures embedded in such texts Fictional and non fictional cartographies are explored including layers of time mobile historical phenomena unmappable terrain features and even animal perspectives Part 3 examines maps and mappings from a medial perspective offering theoretical insight into cartographic mediality as well as studies of its intermedial relations with other media Part 4 explores how a cultural cartographic perspective can be productive in researching the digital as a human experience considering the development of a cultural attentiveness to a wide range of map related phenomena that interweave human subjectivities and nonhuman entities in a digital ecology Part 5 addresses a range of issues and urgencies that have been and still are at the centre of critical cartographic thinking from politics inequalities and discrimination Part 6 considers the growing amount of literature and creative experimentation that involve mapping in practices of eliciting individual life histories collective identities and self accounts Part 7 examines the variety of ways in which we can think of maps in the public realm This innovative and expansive Handbook will appeal to those in the fields of geography art philosophy media and visual studies anthropology history digital humanities and cultural studies as well as industry professionals

Ecospatiality Lowell Wyse, 2021-07-01 Ecospatiality explores modern and contemporary American prose literature through the lens of place showing how authors like William Least Heat Moon Willa Cather Richard Wright and Leslie Marmon Silko represent and reimagine real places in the world and the human environment relationships therein Building on the work of scholars in geography sociology ecocriticism and geocriticism this book articulates the theory of ecospatiality an understanding of place as simultaneously spatial ecological and historical In our current historical moment which is characterized by ongoing ecological collapse and a not unrelated increase in social disorder few issues are more urgent than the human relationship with our environments Whether we characterize this new epoch as the climate change era or the Anthropocene we can no longer ignore the fact that the places we live are rapidly changing in response to economic and environmental pressures Rather than thinking of place as a neutral site for social interaction we should recognize how it underpins and intertwines with human experience Fortunately literature can help us think through how place operates Lowell Wyse shows that texts can be understood as works of literary cartography Focusing on works of nonfiction and fiction whose primary settings are on the North American continent Ecospatiality demonstrates how these narratives rely on realistic literary geography to invoke and sometimes retell important aspects of environmental history within particular communities and bioregions Great Plains Quarterly, 2005 New Westers Michael L. Johnson, 1996 These New Westers Johnson reveals line dance and two step listen to Garth Brooks and George Strait drink beer from long neck bottles wear clothes ordered from Sheplers watch rodeo on ESPN play Wild West arcade games eat fajitas and tacos in stuccoed Mexican cafes collect Western art and Native American crafts and vacation in and move to the West New Westers rewrite the history and biography of the West They reimagine the West in Cowboy sagas and poetry Native American novels Mexican American drama nature writing revisionist films eclectic visual artwork and neo traditional music They flock to movies like Thelma and Louise Unforgiven and Dances with Wolves watch mini series like Lonesome Dove and read bestsellers like The Crossing and All The Pretty Horses New Westers are men and women who may or may not have ever hitched up a horse but who crave connection with the West At the end of a century of urbanization technological change and cultural confusion they seek a more natural home a fuller and wider sense of place and a deeper and more colorful personal identity They also want to revive the dream of the mythic West but on different terms They overrun the Old West and yet strive to preserve it raising troubling new concerns about the differences between the mythic and the real between traditional and contemporary cultural influences Laura Ingalls Wilder's Little Town John E. Miller, 1994 As Laura Ingalls Wilder anticipated her widely loved stories of her prairie childhood have become much more than a nostalgic blend of myth memories and autobiography As John Miller reveals they have much to tell us about the historical realities of day to day living and attitudes in the nineteenth century History and literature are closely intertwined Miller contends Here he illustrates how Wilder s novels enhance our understanding of history and how simultaneously a historical perspective framed Wilder s fiction He shows how Wilder interwove content and form to produce a sentimental and compelling yet nuanced and believable picture of family life on the agricultural frontier BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures, 2007 The Painted Forest Krista Eastman, 2019 Collection of creative essays about identity and place set in various locations in Wisconsin including Sauk County the Dells the Driftless Ernest Hupeden s The Painted Forest in Valton and McMurdo Station in Antarctica The Real Story Sarah Statz Cords, Robert Burgin, 2006-03-30 Here is your road map to the vast and previously uncharted terrain of recreational nonfiction After defining the genre and discussing its unique characteristics and appeals the author describes more than 500 popular nonfiction titles and organizes them according to genre Everything from true adventure true crime and travel narratives to investigative nonfiction environmental writing and life stories Genres are subdivided into subgenres and popular themes such as micro histories deep science and humorous memoirs Focus is on the best titles published within the last decade with key classics and benchmark titles also cited For each title you ll find a short list of nonfiction read alike and fiction read alike are listed for each genre The Construction and Contestation of American Cultures and Identities in the Early National Period Udo J. Hebel,1999 Interdisciplinary Literary Studies ,1999 Nourished by Space, Time, and Kin Kathleen Renee Wallace,1994 History News ,1992

Earth Works Jim Dwyer,1996 Earth Works is the only comprehensive guide available to the best new and classic books about nature and the environment for adults and YAs It provides descriptive entries for trade nonfiction and scholarly or technical books and a significant number of fiction titles which are of interest to both the general public and specialists Each chapter defines its scope then identifies key books or authors and refers to notable related works in other chapters The Social Contract ,2008 American Land Marks Jared Farmer,2005 Cassette Books Library of Congress.
