Reading Writing Learning:

Engaging Students in Disciplinary Literacy, K-6 Cynthia H. Brock, Virginia J. Goatley, Taffy E. Raphael, Elisabeth Trost-Shahata, Catherine M. Weber, 2014-03-01 This accessible book will help elementary school teachers improve literacy instruction inside or outside the Common Core environment The authors address teachers instructional needs by introducing key concepts from current trends in literacy education from high level standards to the use of 21st century literacies Readers then follow teachers as they successfully implement the curriculum they developed to promote high level thinking and engagement with disciplinary content The text focuses on three disciplinary literacy units of instruction a science unit in a 2nd grade classroom a social studies history unit in a 4th grade classroom and a mathematics unit in a 6th grade classroom Each unit revolves around a central inquiry question and includes research based strategies for using reading writing and classroom talk as tools to foster disciplinary understandings This unique insider s look at how real teachers build and implement a Common Core aligned curriculum will be an invaluable resource for teachers schools and districts as they move forward to align their own curricula

The Reading/writing Connection Carol Booth Olson, 2011 The Third Edition features an array of new and updated individual reading writing strategies activities and mini lessons and it scaffolds these strategies in extended demonstration lessons that teachers can implement in their middle and secondary English classrooms Well respected author Carol Booth Olson extends far beyond most books intended for teachers of language arts by integrating reading and writing in creative theory based ways Already a classic in its field this book intends to explore and reinforce the reading writing connection and thus help teachers make visible to their students what it is that experienced readers and writers do when they make meaning from and with texts Lauded by students and professors as a clear and straight forward book this new edition includes plenty of material about teaching the writing process and responding to literature and provides new and improved lessons and activities that help students learn specific strategies New to this Edition New demonstration lessons that highlight students showing cognitive strategy use More high school examples and references to high school texts throughout the book A focus on 21 st century literacies throughout the book with specific activities influenced by the Partnership for 21st Century Skills Framework and the 21st Century English Skills Map Differentiation activities in several demonstration lessons for different student populations

Transforming Our Teaching Through Reading/Writing Connections Regie Routman, 2007-11

In Transforming Our Teaching Through Reading Writing Connections Regie Routman shows how to raise students achievement in reading and writing through a model that interconnects these two literacies The opening sessions ask teachers to articulate their beliefs about reading and writing and then align them with their practices Subsequent sessions show how students literacy understandings are deepened when children s work in writing is used to enhance their reading and vice versa

Research shows that high level on site and ongoing professional development is the surest route to school improvement in literacy and Transforming Our Teaching Through Reading Writing Connections delivers it directly to your teachers

It delivers it directly to your teachers

Transforming Our Teaching Through Reading Writing Connections is based on four foundational ideas

- 1 Change begins with defining common beliefs and setting high expectations about teaching and learning For lasting schoolwide change and high achievement teachers across grade levels must develop common beliefs about what student writers are capable of and which practices best advance children s writing
- 2 An Optimal Learning Model provides an effective unified model for teaching and learning Teachers can plan teach and assess with greater ease and effectiveness with an Optimal Learning Model ensuring that teaching always nudges students toward independence
- 3 Responsive teaching engages students and raises their achievement Research indicates that when children write for authentic reasons achievement goes up Writing leads to success in reading so we can raise achievement in both by asking students to write for real audiences and purposes
- 4 Applying new ideas leads to lasting significant change This is true for students and for teachers

Transforming Our Teaching Through Writing for Audience and Purpose gives teachers consistent opportunities to discuss analyze and try out with their students what they ve seen in each session By applying what they learn their teaching is transformed and so is students learning gives teachers consistent opportunities to discuss analyze and try out with their students what they ve seen in each session By applying what they learn their teaching is transformed and so is students learning
