Opening to God David G. Benner, 2012-02-27 Most Christians want to experience spiritual transformation But many are frustrated by the limited progress of our spiritual self improvement efforts We find our praying burdened by a sense of obligation and failure But prayer is not merely something we do prayer is what God does in us Prayer is not just communication with God it is communion with God As we open ourselves to him God does the spiritual work of transformation in us Spiritual director David Benner invites us to discover openness to God as the essence of prayer spirituality and the Christian life Prayer is far more than saying words to God all of life can be prayer when offered to God in faith and with openness Using the four movements of Lectio Divina Benner explores prayer as attending pondering responding and being Along the way he opens us to a world of possibilities for communion with God praying with our senses with imagination with music and creativity in contemplation in service and much more Learn how prayer can be a way of living your life Move beyond words to become not merely someone who prays but someone whose entire life is prayer in union with God
