The Arch Conspirator Len Bracken, 1999. Veteran conspiracy author Len Bracken's collection of witty essays and articles takes readers down the dark corridors of conspiracy politics, murder, and mayhem. A fascinating maze of interwoven tales, it includes juicy morsels for conspiracy theorists, including the Russian conspiracy and an interview with Costa Rican novelist Joaquin Gutierrez. A pop conspiracy classic, it even includes a psychogeographic map of the third millennium.

Dual-process Theories in Social Psychology Shelly Chaiken, Yaacov Trope, 1999-02-19. This informative volume presents the first comprehensive review of research and theory on dual process models of social information processing. These models distinguish between qualitatively different modes of information processing in making decisions and solving problems, e.g., associative versus rule-based, controlled versus uncontrolled, and affective versus cognitive modes. Leading contributors review the basic assumptions of these approaches and review the ways they have been applied and tested in such areas as attitudes, stereotyping, person perception, memory, and judgment. Also examined are the relationships between different sets of processing modes, the factors that determine their utilization, and how they work in combination to affect responses to social information.

The Dark Secrets of Manipulation and Mind Control Richard E. Bernays, 2021-01-20. Have you felt that someone was taking advantage of you? Have you done something unwillingly just for guilt or fear of hurting people? Have you felt tricked into doing something you didn't want to do? You might have been MANIPULATED. Manipulation is common in everyday life, and manipulators use strategies and techniques of emotional blackmail to seize control. Companies, politicians, media, but also peers and family may negatively affect you intentionally or not. It is because humans influence each other all the time in all sorts of ways. But what sets apart manipulation from other influences, and what makes it dangerous? Unlike persuasion, manipulation acts at a deeper and subconscious level. It occurs when you induce someone to do something by distorting their perception of reality. It is important to distinguish healthy social influence, which occurs between most people, and undue influence, where one person is used for the benefit of another. This book is intended to explore manipulation in its multiple forms, offering practical advice on how to detect when there is a malign intent behind an attempt to influence and stop it or reverse their techniques to your own advantage. In these 3 chapters, we will go through: How to defend yourself from manipulators; You will learn about the types of manipulators and how each one works; Everything you need to know about manipulation techniques: the 5 basic forms of manipulation, the 6 procedures to create subliminal messages, the 5 signs that someone is manipulating you, the 7 rules for communicating with manipulative people, and much more; How to analyse people in everyday life situations; Deepen the main aspects of the research about mind reading and learn the best techniques for practical processes with these 3 essential methods that can make you better at mind reading people; What to do when
