New Contractualism:

Governing Australia Mitchell Dean, Barry Hindess, 1998-06-22 Inspired by Foucault's discussion of governmentality this book makes a major contribution to our understanding of government. The book is interdisciplinary in approach and combines theoretical discussion with empirical focus. It includes a substantial introduction by the editors and contains work critiquing the central notion of governmentality. A range of topics are discussed including regulation of the unemployed and people with HIV/AIDS, sexual harassment in the military, the corporatisation of education, new contractualism and governing personality. While their topics are varied, the contributors explore a range of shared concerns including notions of problematisation, expert knowledge, rationality, freedom and autonomy, giving the volume focus and rigour. This book will be essential reading in political science, sociology, law, philosophy, education and economics. Statecraft, Welfare and the Politics of Inclusion K. Jayasuriya, 2006-04-12 Jayasuriya explores the dynamics of a new social agenda conceived within the boundaries of neo-liberalism. The enhanced focus on issues such as poverty through strategies of inclusion frames new terms of engagement for social policy different from that which existed in the terrain of the post-war welfare state. The Fifth Republic at Twenty William G. Andrews, Stanley Hoffmann, 1980-06-30 The first twenty years of the Fifth Republic encompass four presidential elections, alternating political control of the National Assembly and years of rapid economic growth and contraction. Thus a variety of events now allow an evaluation of the efficacy of the Fifth Republic. The chapters of this book examine the governmental framework and various political groups that have vied for control of it, industrial development and modernization, education and culture and foreign policy. Containing both favorable and critical assessments, the book provides a comprehensive balance sheet on the Fifth Republic and the influence of Charles de Gaulle. Its 25 essays were written by such well-known scholars as Crozier, Gagnon, Gourvitch, Ross, Suleiman and others, as well as some of the younger generation of French specialists, with concluding synthesis by Stanley Hoffmann. The book features an essay of historical importance on the Constitution of the Fifth Republic by the Constitution's own father, the former Prime Minister of France, Michel Debré. Looking into the areas of government, politics, economy, society, culture and foreign policy, this volume gives the reader an understanding of the considerable impact of Charles de Gaulle's administration on contemporary France. Responsibility and Responsibilisation in Education Christine Halse, Catherine Hartung, Jan Wright, 2019-10-23 Concerns with the nature of and relationship between responsibility and responsibilisation pervade contemporary social, political and moral life. This book turns the analytical lens on the ways in which responsibility and responsibilisation operate in diverse educational settings and relationships and social policy and geographical contexts in the USA, Europe, the UK, New Zealand and Australia. Scholars have sought to explain the genealogy and the range of rationalities, technologies, bio-politics and modes of governmentality that bring responsibility and responsibilisation into being, how they act on and are taken up by individuals, groups and organisations, and the risks and possibilities they create and delimit for individuals, social collectives and their freedoms.

Contributors to this collection have diverse views and perspectives on responsibility and responsabilisation This disagreement is a strength It underlines the importance of unravelling both the differences and similarities across scholars and contexts It also issues a salutatory warning about assumptions that reduce the complex concepts of responsibility and responsabilisation to simplistic fixed categories or to generalising and universalising single cases or experiences to all areas of education This volume was originally published as a special issue of Discourse Studies in the Cultural Politics of Education

Human Security as Statecraft Nik Hynes, 2012-02-20 This book critically investigates the discourses and practices of human security and aims to delve below the stereotypical imageries representing them Drawing on Foucault and Deleuze the author approaches human security from a new perspective with the aim of ascertaining what has been behind and underneath a certain spatio temporal articulation of human security and with what political implications and consequences Each human security assemblage is composed of messy discourses and practices which are loosely related and sometimes even disconnected This book examines the Canadian and Japanese articulations of human security and establishes the kinds of structural terrains have enabled shaped or blocked the unfolding of these versions of human security The pivotal contention of the book is that Canadian and Japanese articulations of human security have been different because they have grown from completely different domestic economies of power governing the relationship between the state apparatus and the non profit and voluntary sector While the Canadian human security assemblage has been shaped by transformations in the country s advanced liberal model of government the Japanese has been shaped by the continuities of Japan s bureaucratic authoritarianism A novel approach is employed for the related process tracing a general series linking structural conditions with actual articulations of the human security projects and their further development including analysis of their unintended consequences This book will be of much interest to students of Critical Security Studies human security global governance foreign policy and IR Security studies

Security and Global Governmentality Miguel de Larrinaga, Marc G. Doucet, 2010-05-21 This book examines global governance through Foucaultian notions of governmentality and security as well as the complex intersections between the two The volume explores how Foucault s understanding of the general economy of power in modern society allows us to consider the connection of two broad possible dynamics the global governmentalization of security and the securitization of global governance If Foucault s work on governmentality and security has found resonance in IR scholarship in recent years it is in large part due to his understanding of how these forms of power must necessarily take into account the management of circulation that in seeking to maximize good versus bad circulatory flows brings into play and problematizes the inside outside upon which domestic and international spaces have been traditionally understood Indeed Foucault introduces a set of conceptual tools that can inform our analyses of globalization global governance and security in ways that have been left largely unexplored in the discipline of IR Miguel de Larrinaga is Assistant Professor at the University of Ottawa where he has been teaching since 2002 Marc G Doucet is an
