The New Generation Whitechapel Art Gallery, 1965 The New Generation, 1965, 1965 The New Generation, 1965, 1965 Artists and Patrons in Post-war Britain Courtauld Institute of Art, 2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2001 An examination of art and patronage in Britain during the post war years It consists of five case studies initially written as MA theses that closely investigate aspects of the mechanisms of patronage outside the state institutions while indicating structural links within it The writers have sought to elucidate the relationship between patronage the production of art and its dissemination Without seeking to provide an inclusive account of patronage or art production in the early post war years their disparate and highly selective papers set up models for the structure of patronage under specific historical conditions They assume an understanding that works of art are embedded in their social contexts are products of the conditions under which they were produced and that these contexts and conditions are complex fluid and imbricated in one another The New Generation, 1965, 1965 Exhibition of Sculpture Whitworth Art Gallery (Manchester), 1965

NEW GENERATION, 1965 Junk Gillian Whiteley, 2010-11-30 Trash garbage rubbish dross and detritus in this enjoyably radical exploration of Junk Gillian Whiteley rethinks art s historical and present appropriation of junk within our eco conscious and globalised culture She does this through an illustrated exploration of particular materials key moments and locations and the telling of a panoply of trash narratives Found and ephemeral materials are primarily associated with assemblage object based practices which emerged in the mid 1950s and culminated in the seminal exhibition The Art of Assemblage in New York in 1961 With its deployment of the discarded and the filthy Whiteley argues assemblage has been viewed as a disruptive transgressive artform that engaged with narratives of social and political dissent often in the face of modernist condemnation as worthless kitsch In the Sixties parallel techniques flourished in Western Europe the US and Australia but the idiom of assemblage and the re use of found materials and objects with artist as bricoleur is just as prevalent now This is a timely book that uncovers the etymology of waste and the cultures of disposability within these economies of wealth "Australian Art and Artists in London, 1950?965 " Simon Pierse, 2017-07-05 Subtle and wide ranging in its account this study explores the impact of Australian art in Britain in the two decades following the end of World War II and preceding the Swinging Sixties In a transitional period of decolonization in Britain Australian painting was briefly seized upon as a dynamic and reinvigorating force in contemporary art and a group of Australian artists settled in London where they held centre stage with group and solo exhibitions in the capital s most prestigious galleries The book traces the key influences of Sir Kenneth Clark Bernard Smith and Bryan Robertson in their various and varying roles as patrons ideologues and entrepreneurs for Australian art as well as the self definition and interaction of the artists themselves Simon Pierse interweaves multiple issues of the period into a cohesive historical narrative including the mechanics of the British art world the limited and frustrating cultural scene of 1950s Australia and the conservative influence of Australian government bodies Publishing for the first time archival material letters and photographs previously unavailable to scholars either in Britain or Australia this book demonstrates how the work of expatriate Australian artists living in London constructed a distinct vision of Australian identity for a foreign market Anthony Caro Anthony Caro,1979 Catalogue ,1965
