RECENT DEVELOPMENTS IN LATIN AMERICAN DRAWING. ,1987 Latin American Art at The Museum of Modern Art Miriam M. Basilio Gaztambide, 2025-06-13 This book sheds light on an as yet unstudied aspect of The Museum of Modern Art's MoMA preeminent role in establishing the definition of the problematic term Latin American art in the United States from the 1930s to the present through its collection displays In examining the shifting categorization of Latin American works according to stylistic and geographic taxonomies we gain a greater understanding of the organization of the Museum's collections as a whole during the 1940s and 1950s This book is the first to document these institutional precedents crucial for the understanding of the articulation of a Modernist canon and its contested legacy today The MoMA is widely recognized as the preeminent institution that defined 20th century art through its collection shaping our understandings of the history of art with its hierarchies and exclusions as they sediment over time MoMA's holdings of art from Latin America shed light on a key period when the stylistic categories that have since come to be accepted by many today as the Modernist canon developed MoMA's collection displays suggest ways in which artists from areas of the world formerly excluded can be incorporated within today's increasingly global museums MoMA's approach may be compared to initiatives adopted by several museums since the 2000s creating geographically defined curatorial positions as a way to redress gaps in collecting art from Latin America and other areas of the world In this book author Miriam M Basilio Gaztambide offers a closer study of the history of collection displays as a means to understand canon formation in modern art museums This work will be of interest to those researching Latin American American modern and contemporary art and curatorial and museum studies

Decolonizing Science in Latin American Art Joanna Page ,2021-04-15 Projects that bring the hard sciences into art are increasingly being exhibited in galleries and museums across the world In a surge of publications on the subject few focus on regions beyond Europe and the Anglophone world Decolonizing Science in Latin American Art assembles a new corpus of art science projects by Latin American artists ranging from big budget collaborations with NASA and MIT to homegrown experiments in artists' kitchens While they draw on recent scientific research these art projects also decolonize science If increasing knowledge of the natural world has often gone hand in hand with our objectification and exploitation of it the artists studied here emphasize the subjectivity and intelligence of other species staging new forms of collaboration and co-creativity beyond the human They design technologies that work with organic processes to promote the health of ecosystems and seek alternatives to the logics of extractivism and monoculture farming that have caused extensive ecological damage in Latin America They develop do it yourself open source commons based practices for sharing creative and intellectual property They establish critical dialogues between Western science and indigenous thought reconnecting a disembodied abstracted form of knowledge with the cultural social spiritual and ethical spheres of experience from which it has often been excluded Decolonizing Science in Latin American Art interrogates how artistic practices may communicate extend supplement and challenge scientific ideas At the same time it explores broader questions in the field of art including the relationship between knowledge care and curation nonhuman agency art and utility and changing approaches to participation It also highlights important contributions by Latin American thinkers to themes of global significance including the Anthropocene climate change and environmental justice

Recent Developments in Latin American Drawing Astrid Ruiz-Ramón,1987 Latin American Art ,1992 Recent Developments in Latin American Drawing Astrid Ruiz-Ramón,1987 Lines of Vision Manila. Metropolitan Museum, Cold War in the White Cube Delia Solomons,2023-02-28 In 1959 the very year the Cuban Revolution amplified Cold War tensions in the Americas museumgoers in the United States witnessed a sudden surge in major exhibitions of Latin American art Surveying the 1960s boom of such exhibits this book documents how art produced in regions considered susceptible to communist influence was staged on U S soil for U S audiences Held in high profile venues such as the Guggenheim Museum the Walker Art Center MoMA and the Art Institute of Chicago the exhibitions of the 1960s Latin American art boom did not define a single stylistic trend or the art of a single nation but rather attempted to frame Latin America as a unified whole for U S audiences Delia Solomons calls attention to disruptive artworks that rebelled against the curatorial frames purporting to hold them and reveals these exhibitions to be complex contact zones in which competing voices collided Ultimately through multiple means including choosing to exclude artworks with readily decipherable political messages and evading references to contemporary inter American frictions the U S curators who organized these shows crafted projections of Pan American partnership and harmony with the United States as leader interpreter and good neighbor during an era of brutal U S interference across the Americas Theoretically sophisticated and highly original this survey of Cold War era Latin American art exhibits sheds light on the midcentury history of major U S art museums and makes an important contribution to the fields of museum studies art history and Latin American modernist art

Handbook of Hispanic Cultures in the United States: Literature and Art Nicolàs Kanellos,Claudia Esteva-Fabregat,Francisco LomelÓ,1993-01-01 Recovering the U S Hispanic Literary Project is a national project to locate identify preserve and make accessible the literary contributions of U S Hispanics from colonial times through 1960 in what today comprises the fifty states of the United States Latin American Art Edward Sullivan,2000-09-20 This is the first comprehensive and authoritative survey of an important and increasingly popular field Because each of the contributors is an expert on his or her own national art it is also the first to present a genuinely Latin American viewpoint 17 scholars critics and curators provide an exciting and challenging new assessment of twentieth century Latin American art The wider public and scholars alike will welcome the full treatment of the different histories and cultural traditions that have given each country its own character Major artists such as Wifredo Lam Frida Kahlo Diego Rivera and Fernando Botero are seen in a wider context and the exploration of the rich and important heritage of previously overlooked countries such as Ecuador Peru the Dominican Republic Paraguay and Bolivia will be a revelation to many Springing from complex cultural roots Latin American art is fresh varied and often startling in its originality Its vast range and astonishing qualities are represented here in over 300 outstanding images New York Magazine ,1996-05-20 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine ,1996-05-20 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea
