Romanosthe Romans:

A Dictionary of Greek and Roman Biography and Mythology: Oarses-Zygia William Smith,1876 Roman Identity from the Arab Conquests to the Triumph of Orthodoxy Douglas Whalin,2021-01-22 This book asks how the inhabitants and neighbours of the Eastern Roman Empire understand their identity as Romans in the centuries following the emergence of Islam as a world religion Its answers lie in exploring the nature of change and continuity of social structures self representation and boundaries as markers of belonging to the Roman group in the period from circa AD 650 to 850 Early medieval Romanness was integral to the Roman imperial project its local utility as an identifier was shaped by a given community s relationship with Constantinople the capital of the Roman state This volume argues that there was fundamental continuity of Roman identity from Late Antiquity through these centuries into later periods Many transformations which are ascribed to the Romans of this era have been subjectively assigned by outsiders separated by time or space and are not born out by the sources This finding dovetails with other recent historical works re evaluating the early medieval Eastern Roman polity and its ideology A Dictionary of Greek and Roman biography and mythology,1872 Roman History and Mythology Henry Arthur Sanders,1910 The Romans Kevin M McGeough,2009-03-17 The Romans provides an accessible introduction to the history society and scholarship of one of the most captivating and enduring civilizations in human history From the establishment of the monarchy and the Republican era to the decline of the Empire this comprehensive volume examines every aspect of Roman culture from both historical and archaeological perspectives In addition to surveying the well established subjects of Roman history author Kevin McGeough discusses the latest events in the archaeological investigation of Rome such as the recent excavations at the Temple of Castor and Pollux in the Roman Forum and the controversial identification of an ossuary thought by some to hold the body of James the brother of Jesus The text is accompanied by carefully chosen illustrations maps a glossary and chronology Throughout general readers and students will gain a vivid understanding of Roman civilization and of why it still captures our imagination today The Romans Karl Christ,1984 Roman History and Mythology: Roman law studies in Livy. By A. E. Evans Henry Arthur Sanders,1910 The Encyclopaedia Britannica: Refectory-Sainte Beuve,1911 The last great work of the age of reason the final instance when all human knowledge could be presented with a single point of view Unabashed optimism and unabashed racism pervades many entries in the 11th and provide its defining characteristics Despite its occasional ugliness the reputation of the 11th persists today because of the staggering depth of knowledge contained with its volumes It is especially strong in its biographical entries These delve deeply into the history of men and women prominent in their eras who have since been largely forgotten except by the historians scholars The Guardian <https://www.theguardian.com/books/booksblog> 2012 apr 10 encyclopedia britannica 11th edition Roman Historical Sources and Institutions Henry Arthur Sanders,1904 Elegiac Poems of Ovid: The Roman calendar; selections from the Fasti Ovid,1914 Preaching

Christology in the Roman Near East Philip Michael Forness, 2018-10-25 Preaching formed one of the primary regular avenues of communication between ecclesiastical elites and a wide range of society Clergy used homilies to spread knowledge of complex theological debates prevalent in late antique Christian discourse Some sermons even offer glimpses into the locations in which communities gathered to hear orators preach Although homilies survive in greater number than most other types of literature most do not specify the setting of their initial delivery dating and authorship Preaching Christology in the Roman Near East addresses how we can best contextualize sermons devoid of such information The first chapter develops a methodology for approaching homilies that draws on a broader understanding of audience as both the physical audience and the readership of sermons The remaining chapters offer a case study on the renowned Syriac preacher Jacob of Serugh c 451 521 whose metrical homilies form one of the largest sermon collections in any language from late antiquity His letters connect him to a previously little known Christological debate over the language of the miracles and sufferings of Christ through his correspondence with a monastery a Roman military officer and a Christian community in South Arabia He uses this language in homilies on the Council of Chalcedon on Christian doctrine and on biblical exegesis An analysis of these sermons demonstrates that he communicated miaphysite Christology to both elite reading communities as well as ordinary audiences Philip Michael Forness provides a new methodology for working with late antique sermons and discloses the range of society that received complex theological teachings through preaching Livy's Roman history, book x, with a literal interlinear tr. by H. Platt Livy, Titus Livius, 1886 Roman Law Studies in Livy Alvin Eleazer Evans, 1909 The Agricola and Germania Cornelius Tacitus, 1893 Christianization in Early Medieval Transylvania, 2022-06-20 Little is known about the Christianization of east central and eastern Europe due to the fragmentary nature of the historical record Yet occasionally unexpected archaeological discoveries can offer fresh angles and new insights This volume presents such an example the discovery of a Byzantine like church in Alba Iulia Transylvania dating from the 10th century a unique find in terms of both age and function Next to its ruins another church was built at the end of the 11th century following a Roman Catholic architectural model soon to become the seat of the Latin bishopric of Transylvania Who built the older Byzantine style church and what was the political religious and cultural context of the church How does this new discovery affect our perception of the ecclesiastical history of Transylvania A new reading of the archaeological and historical record prompted by these questions is presented here thereby opening up new challenges for further research Contributors are Daniela Marcu Istrate Florin Curta Horia I Ciugudean Aurel Dragot Monica Elena Popescu C lin Cosma Tudor S l gean Jan Nicolae Dan Ioan Mure an Alexandru Madgearu G bor Thoroczky va T th R v sz Boris Stojkovski erban Turcu Adinel C Dinc Mihai Kov cs Nicolae C lin Chif r Marius Mihail P sculescu and Ana Dumitran Roman historical sources and institutions [papers by various authors] ed. by H.A.
