modern texts and images must at some level reflect their actual presence in those worlds yet scholarly consideration of this material is rare and scattered across diverse sources This volume addresses that gap bringing together fifteen essays that examine the appearance meaning and significance of dogs in painting sculpture manuscripts literature and legal records of the period reaching beyond Europe to include cultural material from medieval Japan and Islam While primarily art historical in focus the authors approach the subject from a range of disciplines and with varying methodology that ultimately reveals as
