Abstract: All We know that metaphysical Poetry came into existence in 17th century during early in the Jacobean age. John Donne is considered one of the most remarkable literary figures and the founder of the metaphysical school of poetry. Metaphysical Poetry was a reaction against the conventional poetry of the spenserians. In the present research paper, I want to explain a beautiful analysis of metaphysical qualities of John Donne poetry. It is real fact that when we read the poetry of Donne was often feel unique qualities from other poets' poetry in it. This unique quality is called metaphysical. We can see the poetry of John Donne full of poetic thought as an argument, Fine conceits, Imaging and logics, obscurity Blending of passion, thoughts and intellectual poetic wit. In the last we can say that John Donne was not a poet of common man, he reveals only his own concept, logics, Passions and theories of dogmatic reassigning.

Keywords: Early Jacobean Period, Metaphysical Poetry, Donne's Poetry, Qualities of Donne's Poetry.

- 1. Introduction : John Donne was a renowned poet of his time. He deeply studied about world and religious books. In his poems worldly taste and eternal taste are intermixed. He gave a new turn to style of poetry. His poetry is a reaction against the conventional poetry of the followers of Spenser. A unique description of the emotions and Passions led Donne to be a Metaphysical poet¹⁻³. His poetry effects on the metaphysics.
- 2. Early Jacobean Period: It was a period in Britain during the reign of King James I and It was a time of great uncertainty. Two distinct forms of Poetry originated during this period. First, cavalier poets and their poetry. They were Richard Lovelace, Thomas Carew, John Suckling. Second, Metaphysical poetry and Poets. They were John Donne, George Herbert, Abraham Cowley and Andrew Marvell. Donne is called the monarch of wit and father of Mataphysical poetry. He became famous and his greatness mainly rests on the Elegies, The satires, The Anniversaries, songs and Sonnets.
- 3. Meaning of Metaphysical Poetry: Metaphysical word is made with two words. The first word is meta and second word is physical: Meta means "To beyond" and physical means. "Physical nature" so metaphysical means. "To beyond physical "nature" Thus the poetry which is beyond the limits and requirements of Physical nature. That is called metaphysical poetry.
- 4. Mataphysical poetry : It is real fact that Donne was tired with the tradition style of tactsy so he used a new style in his poetry. He used uncommon comparison in his poetry. So his poetry is the result of scholarly mind. Metaphysical poetry has many characteristics as fantastic logics and imagery, conceits⁴, love philosophy, comparisons uncommon and obscurity of language etc.

its frequent examples of hypothetical reasoning including their use in mathematics if x then y and science if a moves b then b moves c so what moves a In addition we find Aristotle analysing Plato's arguments and subjecting them to sustained critical evaluation While Metaphysics shows Aristotle in many well developed critical thinking modes it is first and foremost a work of exquisite reasoning creating strong arguments that continue to be debated and deployed today nearly 2500 years after they were written

From Metaphysics to Ethics Frank Jackson, 1998-01-08 Frank Jackson champions the cause of conceptual analysis as central to philosophical inquiry In recent years conceptual analysis has been undervalued and Jackson suggests widely misunderstood he argues that there is nothing especially mysterious about it and a whole range of important questions cannot be productively addressed without it He anchors his argument in discussion of specific philosophical issues starting with the metaphysical doctrine of physicalism and moving on via free will meaning personal identity motion and change to the philosophy of colour and to ethics The significance of different kinds of supervenience theses Kripke and Putnam's work in the philosophy of modality and language and the role of intuitions about possible cases received detailed attention Jackson concludes with a defence of a version of analytical descriptivism in ethics In this way the book not only offers a methodological programme for philosophy but also throws fascinating new light on some much debated problems and their interrelations puffs which may be quoted please do not edit without consulting OUP editor This is an outstanding book It covers a vast amount of philosophy in a very short space advances a number of original and striking positions and manages to be both clear and concise in its expositions of other views and forceful in its criticisms of them The book offers something new for those interested in the various individual problems it discusses conceptual analysis the mind body relation secondary qualities modality and ethical realism But unifying these individual discussions is an ambitious structure which amounts to an outline of a complete metaphysical system and an outline of an epistemology for this metaphysics It is hard to think of a central area of analytic philosophy which will not be touched by Jackson's conclusions Tim Crane Reader in Philosophy University College London The writing is clear straightforward and down to earth the usual virtues one expects from Jackson what he has to say is innovative and valuable the book deals with a large number of apparently diverse philosophical issues but it is also an elegantly unified work What gives it unity is the metaphilosophical framework that Jackson works out with great care and persuasiveness This is the first serious and sustained work on the methodology of metaphysics in recent memory What he says about the role of conceptual analysis in metaphysics is an important and timely contribution It is refreshing and heartening to see a first class analytic philosopher doing some serious metaphilosophical work I think that the book will be greeted as an important event in philosophical publishing Jaegwon Kim Professor of Philosophy Brown University

Metaphysical Elements in Sociology Philip Howard Fogel, 1905 Metaphysics, Method and Politics James Connelly, 2015-10-19 This book argues that R G Collingwood developed a complete and coherent political philosophy of civilization In making this case it also demonstrates that Collingwood s philosophical work comprises a unity in which although there was development there is no fundamental discontinuity between his earlier and later writings A philosophy of civilization must situate its subject matter within the full context of human experience and therefore Collingwood s political philosophy of civilization must be situated within the context of his whole philosophy The book presents the case that Collingwood developed a coherent philosophy of politics and civilization that this had its roots in both the early and the later work and that his overall philosophical approach comprises a generally consistent and integrated whole

Women in the History of Analytic Philosophy Jeanne Peijnenburg, Sander Verhaegh, 2023-01-01 This book contains a selection of papers from the workshop Women in the History of Analytic Philosophy held in October 2019 in Tilburg the Netherlands It is the first volume devoted to the role of women in early analytic philosophy It discusses the ideas of ten female philosophers and covers a period of over a hundred years beginning with the contribution to the Significance Movement by Victoria Lady Welby in the second half of the nineteenth century and ending with Ruth Barcan Marcus's celebrated version of quantified modal logic after the Second World War The book makes clear that women contributed substantially to the development of analytic philosophy in all areas of philosophy from logic epistemology and philosophy of science to ethics metaphysics and philosophy of language It illustrates that although women's voices were no different from men's as regards their scope and versatility they had a much harder time being heard The book is aimed at historians of philosophy and scholars in gender studies
