Absees, 1976 Vols for 1977 include microfiche in pockets Soviet Sociology, 1976 International Intercourse Julie L. Thomas, 2004 American birth control advocate Margaret Sanger 1884 1966 was instrumental in the development of an international birth control movement This occurred not after World War II as is commonly thought but in the interwar era Building upon existing medical exchanges of information and materials in the global arena she established a social movement for birth control While Sanger was not the only interwar era figure involved in the endeavor she was among the most active in pursuing an international agenda A number of discursive themes emerge in the study of Sanger s interwar activities for the global provision of contraception it would provide economic benefit to individual families and collective nations family limitation would help avert the next war and gendered ideas about contraceptive methods and its role in improving women s status These themes are explored through an interrogation of Sanger s interactions with cohorts travel and correspondence in seven key nations in Europe Asia and Southeast Asia her role as founder and editor of the Birth Control Review and lastly as the organizer of three international birth control conferences 1925 1927 1930 The preoccupations established in these venues laid the foundation for the post World War II international family planning movement This dissertation project also challenges a prevailing assumption about the provision of birth control in the Soviet Union in the interwar ear that abortion was the only method available An analysis of Soviet medical literature of the period reveals the existence of clinical and laboratory research on a range of contraceptive methods and research on experimental methods Curiously medical advocates for birth control and not Sanger were the most active in efforts to exchange information with Soviet researchers The explanation for this apparent anomaly underscores Sanger s goals and objectives as a social advocate for birth control in the global arena Sociological Research, 1976 National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1989 Endocrinology Index, 1972 Materīaly k voprosu o terapii rodov pri uzkom tazi Ivan Fedorov, Cesarski Uniwersytet Warszawski, 1891
