A Taste of Salt Mary Katherine Wainwright,2018-10-02 Mary Katherine Wainwright s poems like the taste of salt are at once familiar and strange They collect themselves like photographs in a family album Inside this poetry collection are snapshots of travel adventures from New York to Italy France and Spain yet always returning to family memories of growing up in North Florida A feminine presence presides over these poems a woman listening to her own life and the lives of those she meets along the way confronting the palpable presence of absence memory and loss and the sugar and salt of our deepest longings

Sons of Salt Yaccaira Salvatierra,2024-09-17 Volcanic eruptions and waves collide in Yaccaira Salvatierra s explosive debut collection Sons of Salt which explores the duality of personal and political landscapes as well as legacies of violence within Mexican American communities Sons of Salt poignantly captures the experiences of mothers who battle for their sons wellbeing particularly when fathers are absent due to systemic oppressions Salvatierra s verse breaks the bones of poetic form to bring attention to the failures of a conceptually western God who has categorically failed to protect His children and gives birth instead to a god of nature Weaving self made mythology mourning and maternal fear into visual and narrative poems Salvatierra creates a collection that probes the deepest hurt to ensure the holiest redemption

Ancient Salt Andrew Frisardi,2022-07-12 Andrew Frisardi s essays in Ancient Salt are about several modern and contemporary poets British American and Italian Frisardi offers close readings of these poets and considers their work in light of the challenges of living and writing amid the extraordinary transformations of the modern era. Some of the poets are religious, some are agnostic or perhaps atheist, but all of them articulate a human poetic response to modernity, its pluralism, mobility, scientific discoveries, innovations, and unprecedented global awareness, as well as its rootlessness, fragmentation, dehumanizing mechanization, materialism, environmental catastrophes, and even systematic genocide. The subjects of the essays are Scottish poet Edwin Muir (1887-1959), Italian modernist Giuseppe Ungaretti (1888-1970), Irish poet W. B. Yeats (1865-1939), Welsh poet Vernon Watkins (1906-1968), English poet and Blake scholar Kathleen Raine (1908-2003), English poet and editor Peter Russell (1921-2003), American poet and Alaskan homesteader John Haines (1924-2011), English poet Richard Berengarten (formerly Burns, 1943-), and American poet and critic David Mason (1954-). Frisardi's accessible style and extensive knowledge of the thought and learning of these poets, as well as of the craft of poetry, makes these essays substantial nourishment for poetry lovers and students.
