Angeles Mastretta Jane Elizabeth Lavery, 2005 The first major study on the works of the Mexican novelist Angeles Mastretta demonstrating the rich complexity and range of the author's fiction and essays The Mexican novelist Angeles Mastretta b 1949 has only recently received serious critical attention largely because her work has been seen as popular and therefore inappropriate for academic study This first major work to be published on Mastretta seeks to demonstrate the rich complexity and range of the author's fiction and essays In the tradition of Post Boom Latin American women's writing Mastretta's texts are motivated by a desire to speak primarily of the silenced experiences and voices of women Two of her novels referential and testimonial in style can be placed within the Mexican Revolutionary Novel tradition and explore the Revolutionary period and its consequences in the light of female experiences and perspectives The hitherto unexplored themes of female sexuality and bodily erotics in Mastretta's texts are also considered in this volume Her feminist works avoid facile simplifications heterogeneous and dialogical they interweave the historical and the fictional the everyday and the fantastic The originality of Mastretta's writing lies in its elusive postmodern ambiguities shimmering surfaces are often interrupted by unexpected depths and proliferating meanings cannot be fully circumscribed by critical analysis Jane Elizabeth Lavery lectures in Latin American Studies at the University of Kent

Contemporary Spanish American Novels by Women Susan Carvalho, 2007 A reading of contemporary women's fiction in Spanish America in which space rather than time is seen as the driver of the narrative Space is critical to imaginative writing As English novelist Elizabeth Bowen has observed nothing can happen nowhere This book offers an interdisciplinary framework for reading novels and in particular women's fiction in Spanish America with a focus on geoplots on space rather than time as the narrative engine Following the work of Lefebvre and Friedman the author examines recent works by Spanish America's most visible women novelists Angeles Mastretta Mexico Isabel Allende Chile Rosario Ferr Puerto Rico Sara Sefchovich Mexico and Laura Restrepo Colombia and the ways in which their female protagonists challenge the spatial barriers erected by capitalist hegemony Margins borders liminal spaces the chora space and the body are emphasized as potential sites of transgression The analysis identifies spatial negotiation as a mechanism both for cementing and for undermining authority thus exposing the strategies through which literature constructs and represents power

Judeo-Spanish Ballads from Oral Tradition Samuel G. Armistead, Joseph H. Silverman, 1986 Cuentos de amor y de amores Manuel Linares Rivas, 1918 Villete de amor, cancionero por Bapitsta Montidea (fac.). Juan de Timoneda, 1903 Catalogue of a Collection of Original Manuscripts Formerly Belonging to the Holy Office of the Inquisition in the Canary Islands Walter de Gray Birch, 1903 Restoration of Tropical Forest Ecosystems Helmut Lieth, M. Lohmann, 1914 The destruction of the tropical forests continues rapidly We all know that this has global ecological and economic consequences The problem is of such magnitude that it can only be compared to warfare The destruction of tropical forests is both detrimental to the global ecology as well as posing a serious threat to the people living in these areas Furthermore the overutilization of such a valuable resource poses a serious threat to the next generations Besides the problem generated for the people in these regions and for the earth in general there is a moral obligation to preserve the vast biological diversity in the tropical forests We have a commitment to all species on earth as well as man and therefore need to preserve as many as possible if not all This book discusses the problem from different angles from forestry ecology and nature conservation The two main problem areas are first the wise utilization of that portion of the forest which will be used especially the introduction of planned forestry in such areas and second the development of a good plan for nature conservation in the tropics
