Schooling And Work In The Democratic State:

Schooling and Work in the Democratic State Martin Carnoy, Henry Levin, 1985-06-01 A new explanation of the relation between schooling and work in the democratic advanced industrial state emerges from this study that rejects both traditional views and the more recent Marxian perspective Traditional views consider schools as autonomous institutions that are able to pursue the goals of equality and social mobility irrespective of the inequalities of capitalist society the Marxian perspective views schools as serving the role of producing wage labor for capitalistic exploitation The authors suggest that the shortcomings of both views are rooted in the fact that they do not recognize the true functions of the democratic capitalist state The state is seen as an arena for struggle between forces pushing for egalitarian democratic reforms and those seeking to use the resources of the state for private capital accumulation Depending on which side has primacy at the moment schools will reflect one set of goals over the other However victory is never complete and the tide of battle has shifted back and forth historically The authors develop this theory through interpreting the dynamic relation between U S schools and the workplace Based on this approach they predict changes in both schooling and work as well as the forms that future conflicts between the contending forces are likely to take Schooling and Work in the Democratic State Martin Carnoy, 1985 Democracy, Education, and Multiculturalism Carlos Alberto Torres, 1998-10-29 This important book looks at developments that are changing our understanding of the role of education in citizenship and the possibilities of democratic participation The first chapter reviews theories of citizenship and education based on the classical contributions to political theory of C B MacPherson and T H Marshall The second chapter challenges educators to think more politically about education It is based on a seminal analysis that shows the role education plays in the liberal neoliberal and neoconservative state incorporating critical perspectives from neo Marxism postmodernism and feminism In chapter three Professor Torres analyzes the transition from the welfare state to the neoliberal state including the role of international organizations in promoting educational reform and privatization policies In the concluding chapter Torres draws on Hobbes Locke Jefferson Kant Hegel Marx and other writers such as C Mouffe and C Pateman to outline contemporary approaches to multiculturalism in education and citizenship The Encyclopaedia and Dictionary of Education Foster Watson, 1922 Organized Sunday School Work in North America, 1918-1922 Herbert Heebner Smith, 1922 Education for Democracy Henry Frederick Cope, 1920 Democracy, State Capacity and the Governance of COVID-19 in Asia-Oceania Aurel Croissant, Olli Hellmann, 2023-04-07 This book examines the public health responses to the COVID 19 pandemic in the Asia Oceania region and their implications for democratic backsliding in the period January 2020 to mid 2021 The contributions discuss three key questions How did political institutions in Asia Oceania create incentives for effective public health responses to the COVID 19 outbreak How did state capacities enhance governments ability to implement public health responses How have governance responses affected the democratic quality of political institutions and processes Together the analyses reveal the extent to which institutions prompted an effective public health response and highlights that a high capacity state was not a necessary condition for containing the spread of COVID 19 during the early phase of the pandemic By combining quantitative and qualitative analyses the volume also shows that the effect of the COVID 19 pandemic on the quality of democratic institutions has been uneven across Asia Oceania Guided by a comprehensive theoretical framework this will be an invaluable resource for scholars and students of political science policy studies public health and Asian studies
