Pervin, 2003 The Science of Personality 2 e is an undergraduate text that presents the field of personality as it exists today rather than the grand theories of personality that have dominated personality texts since the 1960s Major theories current in the field are discussed in relation to relevant research Focusing on current research each chapter begins with an overview followed by a list of questions devised to stimulate interest and to aid in relating research to broader issues. Boxed inserts feature a researcher whose work is covered in the chapter along with a personal statement regarding the development, contemporary significance, and future direction of his or her work.

International Handbook of Research and Development of Giftedness and Talent Kurt Heller, Franz J. Mönks, A. Harry Passow, 1993. Contributors from 18 nations give this text a cross-national perspective. It is designed as a synthesis and critical review of significant theory and research on all aspects of giftedness both to help frame more valid research questions and to provide guidance for educational policy and practice.

21st Century Psychology Stephen F. Davis, William Buskist, 2008.

Social and Emotional Development: Methods and models of developmental psychology William M. Bukowski, Brett Paul Laursen, Kenneth H. Rubin, 2009. Atypical Adjustment. The major topics will be variations in attachment styles, the social origins of externalizing and internalizing problems, social withdrawal and isolation, and gene-environment interactions. The material gathered will be about the origins of individual differences in attachment that are antecedent to emotional difficulties, the role of aggression and victimization, the development of internalizing and externalizing problems, and recent studies of the role of genetic processes.
