Carl Schmitt and Leo Strauss in the Chinese-Speaking World Kai Marchal,Carl K. Y. Shaw,2017-02-22 Carl Schmitt and Leo Strauss in the Chinese Speaking World Reorienting the Political examines the reception of Carl Schmitt and Leo Strauss in China and Taiwan The legacies of both Schmitt the German legal theorist and thinker who joined the Nazi party and Strauss the German Jewish classicist and political philosopher who became famous after his emigration to the United States are highly controversial Since the 1990s however these thinkers have had a powerful resonance for Chinese scholars Today when Chinese intellectuals debate the Chinese state the future role of China in the world the liberal international order and even the meaning of Confucian civilization they often employ Schmittian and Straussian concepts like the political friend enemy state of exception liberal education and natural right The very possibility of a genuine Chinese political theory is often thought to be tied to the legacy of these two thinkers This volume explores this complex phenomenon with a cross cultural and interdisciplinary approach The twelve essays in this volume are written from a range of perspectives by philosophers political theorists historians and legal scholars from China Germany Taiwan and the United States

Productive Engagement in Later Life Nancy Morrow-Howell,Ada Mui,2014-06-11 Productive Ageing is the involvement of older adults in society through employment volunteering caregiving education and skill building In 2020 there will be 248 million people in China aged 60 and over At the same time the birth rate continues to drop and family structures are being transformed In the face of such pressing demographic challenges the productive engagement of older adults is a clear cut strategy to strengthen families and communities while simultaneously promoting the health of older adults From a human capital perspective an ageing population represents resources to address societal needs and the active engagement of older adults can enhance and maintain the physical mental and cognitive health of the older adults The challenge is to develop policies that support productive engagement and implement evidence based programs that create opportunities for older adults in active engagement in the community Contributions of older adults will be necessary for social and economic development of families communities and society Productive Engagement in Later Life covers the 2009 China conference on productive aging and discusses how to initiate and build productive aging agenda in China and around the globe This book was originally published as a special issue of China Journal of Social Work

Making Majorities Dru C. Gladney,1998 Majorities are made not born This book argues that there are no pure majorities in the Asia Pacific region broadly defined nor in the West and challenges the thesis that civilizations are composed of more or less homogeneous cultures The 14 contributors argue that emphasis on minority majority rights is based on uncritically accepted views of purity numerical superiority and social consensus
