Grissom, 2009 Introduced in the United States as a new material for statuary in the mid nineteenth century zinc has properties that allowed replication at low cost It was used to produce modestly priced serial sculpture displayed throughout the nation on fountains public monuments and war memorials Imitative finishes created the illusion of more costly bronze stone or polychrome wood This first comprehensive overview of American zinc sculpture is interdisciplinary engaging aspects of art history popular culture local history technology and art conservation Included is a generously illustrated catalogue presenting more than eight hundred statues organized by type trade figures and Indians gods and goddesses fountain figures animals famous men military figures firemen cemetery memorials and religous subjects The compilation of data on these statues will be valuable to scholars filling the current void in research libraries The author s experience as a conservator will also make the an essential resource for historic preservationists seeking to repair statues now damaged by years of outdoor exposure This book has 555 illustrations 354 of which are in color Carol Grissom is Senior Objects Conservator at the
