

Chin Kee Onn

MA-RAI-EE

MARAIEE was the name given to Malaya by the Japanese during their occupation of that country from December 1941 to August 1945, when for three and a half years the lives of all Malayan people hung by a thread. The word, which has been hyphenated in the title for ease of pronunciation, epitomizes the impact of Japan upon Malaya. Nowadays the Malaysians use the word Maraiee partly in derision of the Japs and partly in thanks to Heaven that they survived those terrible times.

This book is a story of Malaya under Japanese occupation, and the author, who is a Malayan Chinese, lived in the country throughout those difficult times.

The background is based on fact, but the characters and their names are fictitious.
