Removals Lucy Maddox,1991-10-24 This book resituates some familiar nineteenth century texts within the context of public debates about the place of American Indians in the civil and cultural institutions of the new American nation Rereading texts by Melville Hawthorne Child Sedgwick Thoreau Fuller and Parkman Maddox demonstrates the pervasiveness of the anxieties produced by discussion of the Indian question and shows how extensively they influenced the production and reception of writing in the first half of the century Great Friendships Rodney Castleden,2020-07-01 This e book is an extract from Encounters that Changed the World and is also available as part of that complete publication In many relationships we know a great deal about a friendship from one participant s point of view and much less from the other s Because Plato wrote and Socrates did not we know a great deal about what Plato thought of Socrates but we know absolutely nothing about what Socrates thought of Plato We think of Plato as Socrates greatest pupil and perhaps Socrates did too or did he see the young Plato as just another pupil This book shines a light back in time to reveal great friendships that were so significant that they changed the world forever      Encounters that Changed the World Rodney Castleden,2020-07-01
