

Ram Krishna Singh, Knocking Vistas and Other Poems

Loss

The chimneys around my home print black spots on the walls darken the air I breathe and the water I drink or bathe in the owners know how to shut the mouths of inspectors and the mafia know how to make money this season politics of lack of rain repair and management scaunch smoke from wildfires away to country's gas emissions they have their priorities mission to rewrite histories erase the past and erect new walls of divisions climate change is no excuse to mould the minds of Gen-Z in face of imminent doom: stay quiet at morass of loss
