

AP EURO STUDY GUIDE

Martin Luther: was a German priest and professor of theology who initiated the Protestant Reformation [1]. Strongly disputing the claim that freedom from God's punishment of sin could be purchased with money, he confronted indulgence salesman Johann Tetzel with his Ninety-Five Theses in 1517. His refusal to retract all of his writings at the demand of Pope Leo X in 1520 and the Holy Roman Emperor Charles V at the Diet of Worms in 1521 resulted in his excommunication by the pope and condemnation as an outlaw by the emperor. Luther taught that salvation is not earned by good deeds but received only as a free gift of God's grace through faith in Jesus as redeemer from sin. His theology challenged the authority of the pope of the Roman Catholic Church by teaching that the Bible is the only source of divinely revealed knowledge [2], and opposed sacerdotalism by considering all baptized Christians to be a holy priesthood [3]. Those who identify with Luther's teachings are called Lutherans.

Zwingli: was a leader of the Reformation in Switzerland. Born during a time of emerging Swiss patriotism and increasing criticism of the Swiss mercenary system, he attended the University of Vienna and the University of Basel, a scholarly centre of humanism. He continued his studies while he served as a pastor in Glarus and later in Einsiedeln where he was influenced by the writings of Erasmus.

Justification by Faith: is God's act of declaring or making a sinner righteous before God. The concept of justification occurs in many books of the Old and New Testaments.

Council of Trent: was the 16th-century Ecumenical Council of the Roman Catholic Church. It is considered to be one of the Church's most important [1] councils. It convened in Trent (then capital of the Prince-Bishopric of Trent, in the Holy Roman Empire, now in modern Italy) between December 13, 1545, and December 4, 1563 in twenty-five sessions for three periods. Council fathers met for the first through eighth sessions in Trent (1545–1547), and for the ninth through eleventh sessions in Bologna (1547) during the pontificate of Pope Paul III [2]. Under Pope Julius III, the council met in Trent (1551–1552) for the twelfth through sixteenth sessions. Under Pope Pius IV, the seventeenth through twenty-fifth sessions took place in Trent (1559–1563).

Humanism: is an approach in study, philosophy, or practice that focuses on human values and concerns.

Erasmus: sometimes known as Desiderius Erasmus of Rotterdam, was a Dutch Renaissance, humanist and a Catholic priest and theologian. His scholarly name Desiderius Erasmus Roterodamus comprises the following three elements: the Latin noun desiderium ("longing" or "desire"; the name being a genuine Late Latin name); the Greek adjective ἐρέσιμος (erésimos) meaning "desired", and, in the form Erasmus, also the name of a St. Erasmus of Formiae; and the Latinized adjectival form for the city of Rotterdam.
