Pictorial Guide To Identifying Australian Architecture:

A Pictorial Guide to Identifying Australian Architecture Richard Apperly, 1989 A Pictorial Guide to Identifying Australian Architecture Richard Apperly, 1989 Australian National Bibliography, 1978 Values in Cities James Lesh, 2022-09-23 Examining urban heritage in twentieth century Australia James Lesh reveals how evolving ideas of value and significance shaped cities and places Over decades a growing number of sites and areas were found to be valuable by communities and professionals Places perceived to have value were often conserved Places perceived to lack value became subject to modernisation redevelopment and renewal From the 1970s alongside strengthened activism and legislation with the innovative Burra Charter 1979 the values based model emerged for managing the aesthetic historic scientific and social significance of historic environments Values thus transitioned from an implicit to an overt component of urban architectural and planning conservation The field of conservation became a noted profession and discipline Conservation also had a broader role in celebrating the Australian nation and in reconciling settler colonialism for the twentieth century Integrating urban history and heritage studies this book provides the first longitudinal study of the twentieth century Australian heritage movement It advocates for innovative and reflexive modes of heritage practice responsive to urban social and environmental imperatives As the values based model continues to shape conservation worldwide this book is an essential reference for researchers students and practitioners concerned with the past and future of cities and heritage The Foreword and Chapter 1 Introduction of this book are available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Ken Woolley Ken Woolley, Shifting Views Andrew Leach, Antony Moulis, Nicole Sully, 2008 Shifting Views draws together a selection of writing from across twenty five years of these conferences to provide a fascinating view into the region's architectural history discipline The essays collected here from such diverse thinkers as Judith Brine Joan Kerr Miles Lewis Sarah Treadwell Philip Goad Julie Willis and Mike Austin reflect some of the most illuminating debates from these conferences Together these essays capture a tone of critical inquiry and the conditions of writing architectural history in Australia and New Zealand Shifting Views takes us into the mechanics of architectural history making exposing its foundations and demonstrating how they can be called to account It shows us how architectural history has been made and revised giving us a glimpse of the means why which our past becomes our history BOOK JACKET Between Duty and Design John J. Taylor, 2014 The architectural work of Joseph John Talbot Hobbs is impossible to overlook in Perth and Western Australia It dominates public spaces as well as domestic and business streetscapes A strong sense of duty determined that the diminutive fifty year old architect soldier J J Talbot Hobbs would in 1914 voyage to the First World War where he survived the horrors of Gallipoli and the Western Front Hobbs powerful organisational skills positioned him as Australia's highest ranking soldier in Europe after the Great War Organiser of Australian war memorials in France and

Belgium his stellar designs both there and throughout Western Australia are now largely forgotten Who was J J Talbot Hobbs that he was considered to be of such importance at the time of his death that a memorial was built in one of the most prominent places in Perth Between Duty and Design is a meticulous biography of the man soldier and architect highlighting his place as a citizen of national importance Australian Architecture Now Davina Jackson,Chris Johnson,2000 Having just completed the most significant five year construction phase in the nation s history Australian architecture has moved into the world spotlight During the 1994 99 boom creative vigor was palpable confidence surged and the entire continent became endowed with a new sense of architectural independence Because it scans a diverse and momentary scene instead of recording a longer continuum of major achievements Australian Architecture Now is an unusual history book It presents two essays 21 case studies of outstanding public and domestic projects and in several brief chapters compares selected buildings according to similarities of either genre or style Close examination reveals surprising evidence that Australian architecture more often reflects the personal styles and attitudes of its creators than the poetic ideal of a unique sense of place Architects featured include Denton Corker Marshall Harry Seidler Gabriel Poole Rex Addison Peter Stutchbury Cox Sanderson Ness Nonda Katsalidis Sean Godsell Alexander Tzannes and more Picturing Architecture Desley Luscombe,Anne Peden,1992 This book presents a range of graphic images used in the production of Australian architecture It pictures perspective axonometric and orthogonal images and each is examined for its specific aesthetic qualities and the techniques and materials used in the production of final artwork To clarify the distinctive characteristics of the graphic images each is accompanied by a statement about the design written by the architect and where available photographs of the completed building The introductory text questions how the selected drawings might be seen to characterise a visibility of cultural production with regard to the present formation of our architectural profession This question opens two domains of analysis firstly the roles of the observer and artist architect in relation to the currency of visual codes and secondly the application to architectural production of visual codes from artistic media These domains of analysis issue further debate on the necessity of architectural drawing to fulfil the representational role of making comprehensible projected built form Women Architects in Australia, 1900-1950 Julie Willis,Bronwyn Hanna,2001 Collection of profiles of over 140 women who were significantly involved in architecture in Australia in the first half of the 20th century Profiles aspects of architectural education professional qualification and contrasts the contribution of women to the field of architecture with the obstacles they faced in order to be recognised and accepted in the male dominated field Includes photos endnotes and Index Willis is Senior Lecturer in Architecture at the University of Melbourne Hanna is a researcher at the University of New South Wales and is a co founder of the Constructive Women Architecture and Design Archive at Stanton Library Journal of the Royal Australian Historical Society Royal Australian Historical Society,2007 Includes the Society s Annual report and statement of accounts Australian Books ,1989 Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library.
