Gender Justice and Human Rights in International Development Assistance Sarah Forti, 2018-09-21 Gender Justice and Human Rights in International Development Assistance provides a critical analysis of how frameworks of gender equality play out in the field of international development assistance at theoretical international legislative and policy levels donor and national policy levels and programme levels If current dominant theoretical perspectives are not interrogated the consequences could be that gender inequalities and injustices are inadequately addressed or that opportunities are missed to impact on poverty reduction and on transformative gender changes Through a renewed interpretation of gender equality in IDA the book aims to show the way towards a more effective response to gender inequalities and injustices faced by women in developing countries Drawing on 20 years of experience working with IDA policies and programming across three continents this book makes an important contribution to the active and dynamic field of critical feminism as well as providing practical illustrations on how such critical thinking might contribute to gender transformational changes Gender Justice and Human Rights in International Development Assistance will be important reading for scholars and upper level students working in the fields of gender equality human rights development assistance foreign affairs international law and international relations

Creditor Reporting System on Aid Activities Aid Activities in Support of Gender Equality 1999-2003- Volume 2005 Issue 6 OECD, 2005-03-02 This publication presents statistics on aid flows in support of gender equality for the years 1999 2003 It provides an analysis of aid targeting the objective of gender equality over 1999 2003 in selected sectors Proceedings of the 7th International Conference on Social and Political Sciences (ICoSaPS 2022) Leni Winarni, Takuo Sasaki, Suyatno Suyatno, Aulia Suminar Ayu, 2023-02-10 This is an open access book This conference will discuss transformation issues in various fields along with the COVID 19 crisis in the world During these two years of this pandemic the world faced many significant changes These changes have impacted various aspects of life not only on a small scale in people s everyday life but also on a large scale that changes the social structure of society in the global world The keywords in this transformation are adaptation resilience and innovation Each party involved in the change is required to make adjustments so as not to be left behind The important aspect is to what extent these parties come up with new findings to survive amid the pace of this rapid global transformation By focusing on transformation issues this conference will bring scholars practitioners and policy makers from various disciplines to discuss changes in various fields of life during the COVID 19 pandemic and in the future This conference is also expected to be a medium for disseminating research findings related to issues of change in various fields including but not limited to social economic cultural educational political and government gender environment religion communication and international relations A Global Political Economy of Democratisation Alison J. Ayers, 2018-02-13 The late twentieth century is often portrayed as an Age of Democratisation with democracy heralded as the best of all political systems Yet democracy has multiple meanings values and significances The start of the twenty first century has witnessed a massive revival of interest in the meaning and role of democracy not least as democracy understood in one highly particular sense has been increasingly recognised to be in crisis This book presents these deliberations in a new light by moving beyond the concept of the sovereign state as the dominant framework of enquiry and by rejecting the primacy of the state and the categorical separation of the domestic and the international Instead Ayers elaborates an account of democratisation through the global political economy encompassing a trenchant critique of mainstream democracy promotion in theory and practice and opening up possibilities for different histories of democratisation autonomous of the Western liberal and neoliberal project This innovative work will prove useful to scholars and students in the fields of Politics Political Economy International Relations Development African Studies History Geography and Sociology

Public Policy Lessons from the AIDS Response in Africa Fred Eboko,2020-10-29 Public Policy Lessons from the AIDS Response in Africa examines how the interplay between national state dynamics in Africa and the global political arena has shaped the global AIDS response and in this context develops a framework for analysing public policy action more broadly in contemporary Africa By applying comparative political sociology to AIDS public action this book identifies four political models that are applicable to public initiatives Fred Eboko goes on to test these in other domains namely the malaria and tuberculosis health subsectors and the education and environment sectors By articulating global and national connections and contributing a critical perspective grounded in African scholarship and French political science the author builds a bold and ambitious framework with the potential to enable coherent and effective public policy action in Africa This book will be of interest to scholars and students of public health global health political science and development studies as well as policy level practitioners in the areas of global health and development OECD Development Co-operation Peer Reviews: Sweden 2019 OECD,2019-06-12 This review commends Sweden for its consistently generous levels of official development assistance and its global development leadership on peace and conflict prevention environmental sustainability and gender equality
