No Night Is Too Long:

No Night is Too Long Barbara Vine, 1995 The author of Anna's Book who was hailed as one of the finest practitioners of her craft in the English speaking world by the New York Times Book Review has written a relentlessly compelling tale of sexual obsession mistaken identity and murder Tim thought he'd gotten away with it For months after the murder off the Alaskan coast he'd heard not a word No policeman at his door asking questions Nothing And then the letters began At first they seemed almost innocuous accounts of historical events But a common theme emerged quickly It was particularly germane to Tim and it related directly to murder In No Night Is Too Long Barbara Vine has written a tour de force rich in characters and setting a remarkable novel by an internationally celebrated master of her craft To research the book the author and her husband embarked on a boat trip from Seattle up the Alaskan coast The stark beauty of that experience provides No Night Is Too Long with an extraordinarily vivid sense of place The novel's exploration of sexual identity and guilt represents a departure for Vine Its resolution as always is a stunning surprise Hunter, Trader, Trapper, 1923
