Polynesian Navigators Yves Earhart,2025-03-20 Polynesian Navigators unveils the extraordinary maritime achievements of Polynesian seafarers who explored and settled the vast Pacific Ocean using sophisticated non-instrumental navigation techniques This book highlights the fusion of celestial navigation understanding of ocean currents and innovative canoe design that enabled these voyages One intriguing aspect is their use of star compasses dividing the horizon into segments based on rising and setting stars alongside wave piloting interpreting wave patterns to maintain course These skills underscore a profound connection to the natural world challenging conventional narratives of exploration

The book argues that Polynesian navigation was a refined science not mere chance emphasizing indigenous knowledge and challenging Eurocentric views Exploring canoe design the text details construction techniques using materials and design principles to create vessels capable of long distance travel Each chapter builds upon the previous starting with key concepts like celestial navigation and progressing to the practical application of this knowledge during actual voyages The book examines the legacy of Polynesian navigation its impact on Polynesian society and its relevance to contemporary studies of indigenous knowledge and sustainable practices By focusing on the agency and ingenuity of these navigators the book offers a valuable perspective on a traditionally overlooked area of maritime history and navigation science Focus On: 100 Most Popular WWE Hall of Fame Wikipedia contributors, Occasional Papers of the Bernice Pauahi Bishop Museum of Polynesian Ethnology and Natural History, 1922 Sport in the Pacific CRichard King, 2017-07-05 Sport in the Pacific is a comparative consideration of the modern movement of Pacific peoples and their physical pursuits across national and cultural boundaries It covers Australia Japan and the United States Its contributors ensure a deeper understanding of the indigenous peoples of the Pacific particularly their social identities and cultural responses in the wake of the arrival of modern sport Sport in the Pacific comprises eight original contributions which analyze Polynesian and Aboriginal athletes and athletics in colonial and post colonial contexts Their analyses stress the importance of adaptation and appropriation reinvention and revivalism as well as diaspora and globalization The volume will have three overlapping themes change and continuity cultural and transcultural power and the complexity of race gender and national identity Sport in the Pacific in short compares the significance of modern sport in a largely ignored setting the indigenous societies of the Pacific This book was previously published as a special issue of International Journal of the History of Sport Australia, New Zealand, and the Pacific Donald S. Garden, 2005-08-19 A fascinating study of the environmental history of Australia New Zealand and the islands of the Pacific from the time of the dinosaurs to the present day Of interest to students and academics alike this book provides a much needed synthesis of the recent literature on the environmental history of Australia and Oceania Part of ABC CLIO's Nature and Human Societies series this book maps out the key trends in the region's environmental history charting the creation of the Australian continent from the ancient land mass of Gondwanaland to the arrival of humans Especially fascinating are the chapters highlighting how successive waves of human migration created environmental havoc throughout the region leading to the collapse of the Easter Island civilization and the spread of nonindigenous flora and fauna From the controversies over the reasons why creatures such as the marsupial lion and the giant kangaroo became extinct to such contemporary problems as deforestation and global warming this book contains sobering lessons for us all Corporeal Archipelagos Julia Frengs, 2017-12-27 Corporeal Archipelagos Writing the Body in Francophone Oceanian Women's Literature offers an examination of contemporary literature from the French speaking Oceanian region through a focus on four of its most prolific women writers and the ways in which these writers negotiate identity construction through one of the most powerful identity markers in the region the body The question of the body how one is to make meaning through corporeality how one represents the body and what role the body plays in identity construction is not only a question with which feminists and postcolonial theorists have been grappling for nearly a half century The body is of integral significance to autochthonous Oceanian societies whose views of corporeality are not built upon a dualistic mind body binary that has influenced Western thought since the era of Descartes but rather on a cosmological epistemological axis that comprehends the body as intertwined with symbolic social and ideological understandings of identity Beginning with an analysis of the ways in which the Oceanian body has been portrayed and consumed as an exotic object of fascination throughout three centuries of European literature the book examines the myriad methods by which women writers break away from exotic myths and reappropriate the body as a powerful tool that enables them to confront the question of self definition in French speaking Oceania The authors examined in this book employ culturally racially and sexually specific bodies in the creation of an original confrontational literature that transgresses historically and culturally imposed boundaries audaciously inserting their voices the voices of Oceania into the postcolonial francophone literary scene Culture and Environment ,2019-07-01

The inspiration for this book arose out of a large international conference the ninth World Environmental Education Congress WEEC organized under the theme of Culture Environment Similarly the theme for this book focuses on the Culture Environment nexus The book is divided into two parts Part 1 consists of a series of research studies from an eclectic selection of researchers from all corners of the globe Part 2 consists of a series of case studies of practice selected from a wide diversity of K Postsecondary educators The intent behind these selections is to augment and highlight the diversity of both cultural method and cultural voice in our descriptions of environmental education practice The chapters focus on a multi disciplinary view of Environmental Education with a developing view that Culture and Environment may be inseparable and arise from and within each other Cultural change is also a necessary condition and a requirement to rebuild and reinvent our relationship with nature and to live more sustainably The chapters address the spirit of supporting our praxis and are therefore directed towards both an educator and researcher audience Each chapter describes original research or curriculum development work
