The Polity Reader in Gender Studies, 1994      Polity Reader in Gender Studies A. Giddens, 1998      The Social Context of Birth Caroline Squire, 2009 Providing an understanding of the impact of social circumstance on women giving birth their babies and families in the 21st century this title explains to midwives and other health professionals how social issues such as domestic violence race and poverty can affect the birth progress      The Illusions Of Post-Feminism Vicki Coppock, Deena Haydon, Ingrid Richter, 2014-09-03 First Published in 1995 As feminists reflect on the impact of the second wave of feminism and assess the gains of the last thirty years invariably they have questioned whether claims that women have achieved equality are justified In the late 1980s there was a proliferation of popular imagery of new men and post feminist women with the concept of post feminism reinforcing and emphasizing the differences between independent upwardly mobile career orientated women and those women who choose the more natural role of wife and mother The Illusions of Post Feminism New Women Old Myths maintains that post feminism is a myth Through in depth interviews with women about four major areas of their lives education work the media and the family the authors challenge and expose the myths implicit in the concept of post feminism The research illustrates that women s discontent continues despite the assumption that gender equality would result from equal opportunities legislation The chapters highlight the ineffective nature of liberal reformism and demonstrate how power relations still lie at the root of the oppression of women With its provoking and challenging analysis this revealing book breaks the silence of women s real experiences by showing the actuality of women s lives today      Corporate Strategy Angelique Du-Toit, 2006-09-27 This book takes a fresh look at corporate strategy exploring it from a feminist perspective Challenging male dominated theory Corporate Strategy looks at unquestioned assumptions held about strategy in practice and academia including whether women approach strategy differently from men and if so how their approach differs Reviewing the histories of strategy and feminism the book explores the reasons why so few serious works on strategy have been written by women and investigates the continued lack of women at senior levels within many organizations Ang lique du Toit draws on postmodern arguments to illustrate the claims made for the necessity of diversity within organizations and challenges the fact that positions of power both in society and organizations remain the exclusive right of men Corporate Strategy argues that if an organization is to survive and succeed in the global economy it has to pay more than lip service to issues surrounding diversity      Introducing Gender & Womens Studies Victoria Robinson, Diane Richardson, 2008 This edition is carefully designed to reflect classic and new developments in the popular field of gender and women s studies      The Journal of Social Studies, 2000      The Sage and the Second Sex Chenyang Li, 2000 This volume offers new insights into the role of women in ancient China their important contributions to society and their pursuit of personal growth and fulfillment The position that Confucianism may actually foster gender equity is particularly interesting in discussions of whether the Confucian worldview is degrading or repressive toward women Handbook of Gender in Archaeology Sarah M. Nelson,2006-07-13 First reference work to explore the research on gender in archaeology Labyrinth Revisited Yannis Hamilakis,2002 Minoan Crete is one of the most intensively investigated archaeological cultures in the world and one that has often captured the public imagination It is a Bronze Age Aegean society but it has been intimately connected with the Classical Greek myth of King Minos and his Labyrinth since Sir Arthur Evans excavated and restored some would say rebuilt the important site of Knossos more than a century ago Yet many archaeological interpretations of this fascinating culture are still largely traditional in focus and often anachronistic This collection of papers challenging and re examining many conventional and established versions of Minoan history is thus long overdue How have modern preconceptions and socio political developments shaped archaeological interpretations of Minoan society What were the gender roles and attitudes of the inhabitants of Bronze Age Crete How can data such as the puzzling architecture the stunning wall paintings the elaborate and abundant pots the landscape and the way it is perceived by humans help us understand the nature and the negotiations of power and the role of the so called palaces These are some of the questions that this book addresses considering Minoan archaeology from a variety of interpretive angles and situating Minoan archaeology in the mainstream of archaeological thinking and practice The Prime of Their Lives Anneke B. Mulder-Bakker,Renée Nip,2004 The contributions to this volume show that in pre industrial Europe women in their prime women that is who had reached maturity and were beyond fertility but not yet in old age constitute a separate category for historical and literary analysis These wise old women or WOWs took on tasks in society which were essentially different from the ones they had taken on before mainly in the household The case studies presented here show that some of these women entered a second phase of creativity and productivity and were even able to fulfil their desires at the age of forty Being able at last to find their authentic selves they acquired a female voice of their own For some of them for example Christine de Pizan the age of forty even functioned as a trope of female authorship Brontë Studies ,2004 New Books on Women and Feminism ,1994 Identity and Difference: Introductory exhibitions. The imageries of difference, the Triennale in the city ,1996 Economic and Political Weekly ,2006 Dominant Culture as a Foreign Culture Janusz Mucha,1999 This volume studies cultural relations from the minority point and the image that various minority groups hold about the dominant group in their day to day social contexts These papers were presented at the Fifth Congress of the International Society for the Study of European Ideas in Utrecht Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall,1997 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers Social Development and Family Changes Cristina Gomes,2006 This book presents various studies that go beyond the mere opposition between macro and micro determinants of social and family changes The cross cultural transdisciplinary and generational perspectives on selection of the partner marriage cohabitation LAT relationships divorces ageing and interchanges children types of households inheritance and construction of the domestic space contribute to deepen the analysis of diversity in families and their multiple interactions with cultural demographic economic and social processes The authors reveal the complex connections between the internal and external spheres of the family the historical moments and contexts the intergenerational experiences the macro structural processes and the individuals TM multiple possibilities of action between the everyday decision making and the changes in the families TM practices Exceptional situations such as catastrophes or economic crises contribute to the diversification of the family and promote retrocession in gender equality Crisis and war intensify female care and domestic work Diversification implies that families are not adscripted to closed systems determined automatically within also closed societies that portray family as a miniature reflection of social structures Deconstructing this myth most of the authors recognize family diversity and its variations in space and time The understanding of the economic social cultural and demographic family processes and practices permits to relate population and society The duplication of the life expectancy and the reduction of births by almost one half in entire populations worldwide lie behind marriage markets reproductive practices generational availability coexistence probabilities intergenerational exchange and new and different familial arrangements Increases in life expectancy and changes in the timing and number of children lead social actors to reconsider gender and generational roles the solidarity among generations has another background and acquires different meanings although there has been an increase in gender equality it has come with an increased social inequality within the countries and among them Demographic processes are an inherent part of social processes and the age structure of the populations constitutes the human and biological basis for the analysis of social behaviors that these populations choose to reproduce as well as for the understanding of the differences in the distribution of resources into and between countries genders generations and social groups Asiatische Studien ,1998
