One Step Beyond:

Terror Television John Kenneth Muir, 2013-02-25 Although horror shows on television are popular in the 1990s thanks to the success of Chris Carter's The X-Files, such has not always been the case. Creators Rod Serling, Dan Curtis, William Castle, Quinn Martin, John Newland, George Romero, Stephen King, David Lynch, Wes Craven, Sam Raimi, Aaron Spelling, and others have toiled to bring the horror genre to American living rooms for years. This large-scale reference book documents an entire genre from the dawn of modern horror television with the watershed Serling anthology Night Gallery (1970), a show lensed in color and featuring more graphic makeup and violence than ever before seen on the tube through more than 30 programs, including those of the 1998-1999 season. Complete histories, critical reception, episode guides, cast, crew, and guest star information, as well as series reviews, are included along with footnotes, a lengthy bibliography, and an in-depth index. From Kolchak: The Night Stalker to Millennium, from The Evil Touch to Buffy the Vampire Slayer and Twin Peaks, Terror Television is a detailed reference guide to three decades of frightening television programs, both memorable and obscure.

"Jam Bands" Dean Budnick, 1998-09 Jam Bands is the first comprehensive guide to the emerging wave of improvisational music now thriving in North America. The book spans the continent, identifying more than 175 of the most noteworthy jam bands. Each entry includes photos, biographies, discographies, personal insights from band members, web site listings, and descriptions and analyses of each group's distinctive musical styles and talents. Additionally, since all the profiled bands encourage live taping, Jam Bands offers a section devoted to the art of recording concerts and building a live music library. Written by noted live music fanatic and tapper Dean Budnick, author of The Phishing Manual, Jam Bands is sure to please both long-time devotees of the jam band scene and new initiates, as well. From Aquarium Rescue Unit to Zero with stops along the way for Moe, Medeski Martin Wood, Rusted Root, String Cheese Incident, and String Cheese, Jam Bands will reacquaint readers with cherished groups and introduce new favorites while unlocking the mysteries of taping. Television Introductions

Vincent Terrace, 2013-11-07 Since the beginning of network television, many shows have been preceded by an announcement or theme song that served various purposes. In the 1950s and 60s, it was common for announcers to declare that a program had been brought to you by a sponsor who paid for the privilege of introducing a show. Other programs, such as The Twilight Zone, Star Trek, and The Odd Couple, provided a brief encapsulation of the show's subject matter, a practice that has continued for recent shows like Alias, Battlestar Galactica, Person of Interest, and the various editions of Law Order. In Television Introductions: Narrated TV Program Openings since 1949, Vincent Terrace has assembled openings for more than nine hundred television shows from the past seven decades. The only documented history of narrated television program introductions, this volume is arranged by type of programming, such as comedy, drama, Western, game show, soap opera, and children's show. In addition to quoting the opening material, entries provide information about each show's network history and years of broadcast. Many entries include descriptions of the show, the names of announcers, and a list of main cast.

members as well as a sponsor pitch exactly as spoken Openings for programs with multiple introductions like The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet and Charlie's Angels are also included For programs that featured new guest stars every episode such as game shows and variety programs Terrace has selected a representative introduction In addition to the theme song credits found in the main text there are also appendixes of theme songs and their composers and or singers as well as a listing of commercial releases on DVD VHS CD and LP of shows and their soundtracks A comprehensive resource for researchers and pop culture aficionados alike Television Introductions provides a fascinating look at this neglected part of TV history One Step Beyond Chris Moon,2000 Chris Moon knows about tough The Times This man is a hero for our times Daily Mail While supervising mine clearance in Mozambique in 1995 Chris Moon was blown up in the supposedly clear area of the safety lane He lost his lower right leg and right arm and survived only through sheer determination Less than a year after leaving hospital he ran the London Marathon raising money for charities assisting the disabled defying all expectations for his own future He has since completed more than fifteen other marathons including the punishing Marathon des Sables which is a 137 mile race across the Sahara One Step Beyond is Chris Moon's story so far He has led a life of remarkable experiences from being one of the few people to survive kidnap by the Khmer Rouge to running the final stage of the Olympic torch relay to Nagano for the opening of the 18th Winter Olympics in 1998 Chris Moon writes with wit and charm passion and belief and his tale is truly one of adventure romance and inspiration An inspiring book written by a very brave and modest man Richard Branson A wonderful read replete with humour and honesty Steve Cram This powerful book will give you an insight into Chris Moon and like me you will feel humbled in his presence Tracey Edwards One Step Beyond Gram Seed,2008 TV Guide: TV on DVD 2006 TV Guide,2005-10 From the foremost authority on TV viewing comes a complete guide to television shows on DVD The Earth's Last Wilderness Robert Swan,Gil Reavill,2009 Originally published in hardcover in the United States as Antarctica 2041 my quest to save the earth's last wilderness by Broadway Books T p verso Hume Thomas Henry Huxley,1879 Public Libraries in the United States of America United States.
