My World Of Color:

My World of Conceit Heather Glenn,2013-06-12 An only child in a lonely valley is the one folks least suspect of arousing treasonous attention merely by the sight of her face or her ears But when the truth of her heritage is finally revealed to Diana Firathor treason is not the only risk she must take to seize the opportunity of a lifetime a throne all her own Her adventure spins her into a chaotic chase after legends and fame fleeing from tyranny and enslavement And as she ventures to lands of which she has never seen nor heard trusting strangers and estranging friends she must learn that there is so much more to ruling a people than the mere trifles of state Her tutors try to teach her but even such lessons seem to come too late It is not until she is truly faced with the most difficult choice that she learns what doing the best for the people really means It takes a little heart a little more bravery and a lot more humility and then more bravery My World of Art: by Blanche Jefferson and Clyde McGeary Blanche Jefferson,1963 My World of Color Margaret Wise Brown,2002 Rhyming verses describe things that are red orange yellow green blue purple brown black gray white and pink My World of Art Blanche Jefferson,1963
