Pathfinder Force Gordon Musgrove,1992 A Pathfinder's War Ted Stocker,Sean Feast,2012-11-15 The only RAF flight engineer to be awarded a Distinguished Service Order recounts his prolific WWII combat career in this engaging military memoir Flight Lieutenant Ted Stocker lived a charmed life Joining the Royal Air Force as a teenager he trained as one of the famous Halton Aircraft Apprentices known as Trenchard s Brats Stationed at RAF Boscombe Down he flew prototype Stirling and Halifax bombers just as the Second World War broke out Qualifying as one of the RAF s first flight engineers he went on to join Bomber Command s elite Pathfinder Force Stocker was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross in 1943 and eventually completed more than 100 bombing operations often as a master bomber Although his aircraft was frequently hit and he survived a crash landing Stocker was never wounded His achievements were recognized with the only known Distinguished Service Order issued to a flight engineer In this candid and fascinating memoir co written by acclaimed aviation historian Sean Feast Stocker relates his incredible tale of singular courage and miraculous survival Pathfinder Force Gordon Musgrove,1976 Beretter om s kaldte stifinder enheder i RAF under 2 verdenskrig The Strategic Air Offensive Against Germany Sir Charles Kingsley Webster,Noble Frankland,1961 Bomber Command Gordon A. A. Wilson,2021-11-15 A complete history of Bomber Command including its crucial role in WWII and later nuclear role in the Cold War The Luftwaffe James S. Corum,1997 This study provides an appraisal of Germany s air forces from the post World War I era through the early stages of World War II The author demolishes several myths surrounding the Luftwaffe including the belief that they had no ideas beyond the support of ground forces The Mobility Forum ,1993 Bomber Harris John Grehan,Martin Mace,2014-04-22 The bombing campaign conducted against Germany and German occupied Europe in the Second World War was and remains one of the most controversial operations of the entire war Much of Bomber Command s effort was what was defined as area bombing in which whole cities or districts were targeted The ultimate aim of an attack on a town area Sir Arthur Harris wrote in one of his despatches is to break the morale of the population which occupies it namely to produce i destruction and ii fear of death This strategy was so successful it almost brought Germany to the point of collapse until Churchill worried about the devastation it was causing and the number of civilian deaths which resulted ordered it to cease Harris despatches explain in great detail the success of his methods which if given full reign may have brought the war to a speedier conclusion but would have meant even more German casualties Such was the controversy surrounding Bomber Command s operations Harris despatches were not published by the government even though the despatches of every other branch of the armed services and all of their operations were made public The full text of Harris despatches is reproduced here along with an explanation why these documents were withheld for so many years Flak Edward B. Westermann,2001 Air raid sirens wail searchlight beams flash across the sky and the night is aflame with tracer fire and aerial explosions as Allied bombers and German anti aircraft units duel in the thundering darkness Such cinematic scenes played out with increasing frequency as World War II ground to a close were more than mere stock material for movie melodramas As Edward Westermann reveals they point to a key but largely unappreciated aspect of the German war effort that has yet to get its full due Long the neglected stepchild in studies of World War II air campaigns German flak or anti aircraft units have been frequently dismissed by American British and German historians and by veterans of the European air war as ineffective weapons that wasted valuable materiel and personnel resources desperately needed elsewhere by the Third Reich Westermann emphatically disagrees with that view and makes a convincing case for the significant contributions made by the entire range of German anti aircraft defenses During the Allied air campaigns against the Third Reich well over a million tons of bombs were dropped upon the German homeland killing nearly 300 000 civilians wounding another 780 000 and destroying more than 3 500 000 industrial and residential structures Not surprisingly that aerial Armageddon has inspired countless studies of both the victorious Allied bombing offensive and the ultimately doomed Luftwaffe defense of its own skies By contrast flak units have virtually been ignored despite the fact that they employed more than a million men and women were responsible for more than half of all Allied aircraft losses forced Allied bombers to fly far above high accuracy altitudes and thus allowed Germany to hold out far longer than it might have otherwise Westermann s definitive study sheds new light on every facet of the development and organization of this vital defense arm includi

Pathfinder Cranswick Michael Cumming,1962 Pathfinder Cranswick D S O D F C was one of the war s unknown heroes This story of Alec Cranswick has been assembled with the same meticulous regard for accuracy as that with which Cranswick himself strived to ensure each one of his target marking flares and bombs was dropped on every single mission It begins in a place he loved almost beyond all else the cockpit of a Lancaster bomber Prologue

Voices in Flight Martin W. Bowman,2016 Charged with the formidable task of locating and marking German targets for attack by the main force of Bomber Command the Path Finder Force 8 PFF Group and those in 5 Group was perhaps the most experienced and highly trained elite group created within the Royal Air Force during World War II Its aircrew members were almost entirely volunteers and despite the terrifying odds against any individual or complete crew ever completing the sixty sorties tour of operations with the PFF the most feared punishment was to forfeit their coveted Path Finder wings and be posted away to other units This remarkable evocation of a remarkable force is made up largely of narrative and photographs from the men who flew with or were an integral part of the PFF They alone are best qualified to recount the Path Finder story While the subject matter herein largely covers the four engined Stirlings Halifaxes and Lancasters and twin engined Mosquitoes of 8 PFF Group the Path Finding techniques used by 5 Group are not forgotten and there are two chapters detailing the work of the Oboe Mosquitoes and other markers in
