Verhoeven disrobes the mythical Jesus to reveal a man who has much in common with other great political leaders throughout history human beings who believed that change was coming in their lifetimes Gone is the Jesus of the miracles gone the son of God gone the weaver of arcane parables whose meanings are obscure In their place Verhoeven gives us his vision of Jesus as a complete man someone who was changed by events the leader of a political movement and perhaps most importantly someone who in his speeches and sayings introduced a new ethic in which the embrace of human contradictions transcends the mechanics of value and worth that had defined the material world before Jesus The Romans saw Jesus as an insurrectionist what today is often called a terrorist It is very likely there were wanted posters of him on the gates of Jerusalem He was dangerous because he was proclaiming the Kingdom of Heaven but this wasn't the Kingdom of Heaven as we think of it now some spectral thing in the future up in the sky For Jesus the Kingdom of Heaven was a very tangible thing Something that was already present on Earth in the same way that Che Guevara proclaimed Marxism as the advent of world change If you were totalitarian rulers running an occupation like the Romans this was troubling talk and that was why Jesus was killed

Images of Occupation in Dutch Film

Wendy Burke, 2025-10-01 The German occupation of the Netherlands during World War II left a lasting mark on Dutch memory and culture This book is the first to explore depictions of that period in films made a generation later between 1962 and 1986 As Dutch public opinion towards the war altered over the postwar decades the historical trajectory of Dutch recovery and reconstruction political economic and most complicated of all psychological came to be revealed often unconsciously in the films of the period

The Lost One Stephen Youngkin, 2005-09-30 Often typecast as a menacing figure Peter Lorre achieved Hollywood fame first as a featured player and later as a character actor trademarking his screen performances with a delicately strung balance between good and evil His portrayal of the child murderer in Fritz Lang's masterpiece M 1931 catapulted him to international fame Lang said of Lorre He gave one of the best performances in film history and certainly the best in his life Today the Hungarian born actor is also recognized for his riveting performances in The Man Who Knew Too Much 1934 The Maltese Falcon 1941 and Casablanca 1942 Lorre arrived in America in 1934 expecting to shed his screen image as a villain He even tried to lose his signature accent but Hollywood repeatedly cast him as an outsider who hinted at things better left unknown Seeking greater control over his career Lorre established his own production company His unofficial graylisting by the House Committee on Un American Activities however left him with little work He returned to Germany where he co authored directed and starred in the film Der Verlorene The Lost One in 1951 German audiences rejected Lorre's dark vision of their recent past and the actor returned to America wearily accepting roles that parodied his sinister movie personality The first biography of this major actor The Lost One A Life of Peter Lorre draws upon more than three hundred interviews including conversations with directors Fritz Lang Alfred Hitchcock Billy Wilder John Huston Frank Capra and Rouben Mamoulian who speak candidly about Lorre both the man and the actor Author

Stephen D Youngkin examines for the first time Lorre s pivotal relationship with German dramatist Bertolt Brecht his experience as an migr from Hitler s Germany his battle with drug addiction and his struggle with the choice between celebrity and intellectual respectability Separating the enigmatic person from the persona long associated with one of classic Hollywood s most recognizable faces The Lost One is the definitive account of a life triumphant and yet tragically riddled with many failed possibilities
