The Video Source Book David J. WEINER,1990 Variety's Complete Home Video Directory ,1988 Will I Live Tomorrow? Sonia Nassery Cole,2012-10-16 When Sonia Nassery Cole set out to film The Black Tulip in her homeland of Afghanistan she knew the odds were against her she was told time and time again that filming inside a war zone would be impossible What she didn't anticipate was how intent the Taliban and its sympathizers were on halting the film's production the crew encountered extortion government corruption kidnapping attempts and death threats even with around the clock security Her cinematographer fled after two days and many others followed After 9/11 Cole wrote The Black Tulip based on a true story of a real Afghan family The plot was simple After 2001 when the Taliban was routed an Afghan family opened The Poet's Corner a restaurant with an open microphone for all to read poetry perform music and tell their stories But the Taliban didn't approve and the family's new found hope proved fleeting as it struggled to maintain the restaurant and its vibrant way of life Selected as Afghanistan's official submission for the Best Foreign Language Film at the 2010 Academy Awards The Black Tulip is a modern portrait of Afghanistan that captures the plight and resilience of its people Without financial support from a studio or anyone else Cole self-financed the film by mortgaging her home and selling her belongings Then with everything on the line she left for Kabul to make the impossible possible and set out to gather the right people who would risk their lives and willingly be part of the production In Will I Live Tomorrow Cole gives an intimate look into what went on behind the scenes of making a controversial film in the heart of a war ravaged country the looming terror the Taliban creates among Afghans everywhere and the challenges and fear the cast and crew faced every day Will I Live Tomorrow is a memoir about one woman's struggle to make a difference in a violent world Video Source Book Gale Group,1999-10-28 A guide to programs currently available on video in the areas of movies entertainment general interest education sports recreation fine arts health science business industry children juvenile how to instruction Rock Your Business David Fishof,2012-09-04 Would you like your business to burst into public awareness like Lady Gaga to have the long lived success of Mick Jagger to demonstrate the creativity of The Beatles We don't normally think of the music business as a source of entrepreneurial insight but we should The best bands have longevity a depth of customer loyalty and a level of profitability that puts most businesses to shame And what they know about marketing partnerships the power of bartering and overcoming obstacles isn't taught in any business school David Fishof has lived at the center of the music business for more than 25 years From his early successes in reuniting The Monkees and convincing Ringo Starr to launch his All Starr tour to his current megasuccess as founder and CEO of Rock n Roll Fantasy Camp Fishof has learned from the leading minds in the music business and has applied this learning in one entrepreneurial venture after another Filled with insights from Fishof's amazing exploits in the music industry and seasoned with business tips from music legends Rock Your Business provides important and original business insights from an unlikely source the world of rock and roll We Are the Giants!
