Potential Anna Harding, 2002 Artwork by Jacqueline Cooke Jonathan Faiers Ella Gibbs Rita Keegan Ruth MacLennan Naomi Salaman Edited by Anna Harding Text by Inke Arns Nils Norman Business Archives, 2003 The Big Archive Sven Spieker, 2017-03-03 The archive as a crucible of twentieth century modernism and key for understanding contemporary art The typewriter the card index and the filing cabinet these are technologies and modalities of the archive To the bureaucrat archives contain little more than garbage paperwork no longer needed to the historian on the other hand the archive's content stands as a quasi objective correlative of the living past Twentieth century art made use of the archive in a variety of ways from what Spieker calls Marcel Duchamp's anemic archive of readymades and El Lissitzky's Demonstration Rooms to the compilations of photographs made by such postwar artists as Susan Hiller and Gerhard Richter In The Big Archive Sven Spieker investigates the archive as both bureaucratic institution and index of evolving attitudes toward contingent time in science and art and finds it to be a crucible of twentieth century modernism Dadaists constructivists and Surrealists favored discontinuous nonlinear archives that resisted hermeneutic reading and ordered presentation Spieker argues that the use of archives by such contemporary artists as Hiller Richter Hans Peter Feldmann Walid Raad and Boris Mikhailov responds to and continues this attack on the nineteenth century archive and its objectification of the historical process Spieker considers archivally driven art in relation to changing media technologies the typewriter the telephone the telegraph film And he connects the archive to a particularly modern visuality showing that the avant garde used the archive as something of a laboratory for experimental inquiries into the nature of vision and its relation to time The Big Archive offers us the first critical monograph on an overarching motif in twentieth century art Indigenous Notions of Ownership and Libraries, Archives and Museums Camille Callison, Loriene Roy, Gretchen Alice LeCheminant, 2016-07-11 Tangible and intangible forms of indigenous knowledges and cultural expressions are often found in libraries archives or museums Often the legal copyright is not held by the indigenous people's group from which the knowledge or cultural expression originates Indigenous peoples regard unauthorized use of their cultural expressions as theft and believe that the true expression of that knowledge can only be sustained transformed and remain dynamic in its proper cultural context Readers will begin to understand how to respect and preserve these ways of knowing while appreciating the cultural memory institutions attempts to transfer the knowledges to the next generation Archives of the Roentgen Ray, 1905 Photography in and out of Africa Kylie Thomas, Louise Green, 2018-02-02 This book offers a range of perspectives on photography in Africa bringing research on South African photography into conversation with work from several other places on the continent including Angola the DRC Kenya Mali Morocco Nigeria Ethiopia and Eritrea The collection engages with the history of photography and its role in colonial regulatory regimes with social documentary photography and practices of self representation and with the place of portraits in the production of subjectivities as well as contemporary and experimental photographic practices

Through detailed analyses of particular photographs and photographic archives the chapters in this book trace how photographs have been used both to affirm colonial worldviews and to disrupt and critique such forms of power This book was originally published as a special issue of Social Dynamics Archives of Dermatology and Syphilology ,1922

Memory in Motion Ina Blom,Trond Lundemo,Eivind Røssaak,2025-10-01 How do new media affect the question of social memory Social memory is usually described as enacted through ritual language art architecture and institutions Phenomena whose persistence over time and capacity for a shared storage of the past was set in contrast to fleeting individual memory But the question of how social memory should be understood in an age of digital computing instant updating and interconnection in real time is very much up in the air The essays in this collection discuss the new technologies of memory from a variety of perspectives that explicitly investigate their impact on the very concept of the social Contributors David Berry Ina Blom Wolfgang Ernst Matthew Fuller Andrew Goffey Liv Hausken Yuk Hui Trond Lundemo Adrian Mackenzie S nia Matos Richard Mills Jussi Parikka Eivind R ssaak Stuart Sharples Tiziana Terranova Pasi V liaho Archives of Radiology and Electrotherapy ,1918 Electrostatics and Current Electricity for JEE Advanced, 3E (Free Sample) B.
