these emotions often reflect our mood and what is happening in our lives at that given time Our worldly lives are as deep and as rough as calm and complex as a vast sea ever moving ever changing like waves rushing to shore Those torrents of waves mix up our sentiments our ideas and the literature bound in this book emphasis that note by note Once I write of Love is a very personal anthology of life from childhood through to young adulthood beautifully illustrated with 25 sketches from the Victorian era the 1950 s and 60 s and modern abstract art The words within this book are very much from a life now passed often misunderstood often void of any reason It is an exhaustive anthology of living It is what poetry should be a timeless imprint from a moment in time
