Medical Detective:

Adventures of a Female Medical Detective Mary Guinan, 2021-08-03 A rip roaring read Nature Fresh out of college in the 1960s Mary Guinan aspired to be an astronaut until she learned that NASA's astronaut program wasn't recruiting women. Instead Guinan went to medical school and became a disease detective with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's Epidemic Intelligence Service. Selected to join India's Smallpox Eradication program Guinan traveled to remote villages to isolate smallpox cases and then vaccinate all uninfected persons within a ten mile radius. By May 1975 the World Health Organization declared Uttar Pradesh smallpox free. During her barrier breaking career Dr Guinan met arms seeking Afghan insurgents in Pakistan and got caught in the crossfire between religious groups in Lebanon. She was one of the first medical detectives on the ground in San Francisco at the start of the AIDS crisis. And she served as an expert witness in a landmark decision that still protects HIV patients from workplace discrimination. Randy Shilts's best selling book on the epidemic And the Band Played On features her AIDS work as does the HBO movie of the same name. In Adventures of a Female Medical Detective Guinan weaves together twelve vivid stories of her life in medicine describing her individual experiences in controlling outbreaks, researching new diseases and caring for patients the world over. Occasionally heartbreaking sometimes hilarious Guinan's account of her pathbreaking career will inspire public health students and future medical detectives and give all readers insight into that part of the government exclusively devoted to protecting their health. The Health

Roueché, 1991-03-30 The classic collection of award winning medical investigative reporting. What do Lyme's disease in Long Island, a pig from New Jersey and an amateur pianist have in common? All are subjects in three of 24 utterly fascinating tales of strange illnesses, rare diseases, poisons and parasites, each tale a thriller of medical suspense by the incomparable Berton Roueché. The best of his New Yorker articles are collected here to astound readers with intriguing tales of epidemics in America's small towns, threats of contagion in our biggest cities, even bubonic plague in a peaceful urban park. In each true story local health authorities and epidemiologists race against time to find the clue to an unknown and possibly fatal disease. Sometimes a life hangs in the balance and the culprit may be as innocuous as a bowl of oatmeal. Award winning journalist Berton Roueché is unfailingly exact, informative and able to keep anyone reading till dawn. Western Medical Review, 1901
