Narrative Developments from Chaucer to Defoe Gerd Bayer, Ebbe Klitgard, 2011-02-22 This collection analyzes how narrative technique developed from the late Middle Ages to the beginning of the 18th century Taking Chaucer's influential Middle English works as the starting point the original essays in this volume explore diverse aspects of the formation of early modern prose narratives Essays focus on how a sense of selfness or subjectivity begins to establish itself in various narratives thus providing a necessary requirement for the individuality that dominates later novels Other contributors investigate how forms of intertextuality inscribe early modern prose within previous traditions of literary writing A group of chapters presents the process of genre making as taking place both within the confines of the texts proper but also within paratextual features and through the rationale behind cataloguing systems A final group of essays takes the implicit notion of the growing realism of early modern prose narrative to task by investigating the various social discourses that feature ever more strongly within the social commercial or religious dimensions of those texts The book addresses a wide range of literary figures such as Chaucer Wroth Greene Sidney Deloney Pepys Behn and Defoe Written by an international group of scholars it investigates the transformations of narrative form from medieval times through the Renaissance and the early modern period and into the eighteenth century The Narrative in the Medieval Romance Epic Eugene Dorfman, 1971 A New Companion to Chaucer Peter Brown, 2019-03-19 The extensively revised and expanded version of the acclaimed Companion to Chaucer An essential text for both established scholars and those seeking to expand their knowledge of Chaucer studies A New Companion to Chaucer is an authoritative and up to date survey of Chaucer scholarship Rigorous yet accessible this narrative each serving a specialized function while working in concert with other organs to create and sustain the story This accessible and engaging guide to medieval type scenes consists of three parts Part I is a compendium of the type scenes commonly found in medieval narrative including analyses of examples from individual poems Part II explores combinations of type scenes within single works of literature for purposes of chronology characterization or virtuosity Part III examines how a single type scene manifests across multiple poems adapting to a variety of settings and periods while maintaining its original intent This volume kindles in scholars teachers and students alike a new and refreshing awareness of the foundational narrative strategies of medieval literature

History and Theory of Compromise Jan-Hendryk de Boer, Manon

Westphal, Julia Mariko Jacoby, Karsten Mause, Stefan Zeppenfeld, 2025-11-17 Interest in compromise has recently grown both in public and scholarly debates However there is a lack of interdisciplinary dialogue on the topic This volume fills this gap by bringing together contributions from various relevant disciplines They show that compromise has been a central technique to regulate social and political conflicts in different contexts In a compromise the conflicting parties create an agreement by making mutual concessions but do not give up their original claims Therein lies the capacity of compromise to prevent or end escalated conflicts even in situations in which disagreements cannot be transformed into a consensus In addition to theoretical investigations of the concept the volume includes case studies on Europe in the Middle Ages in the 19th and 20th centuries and on pre modern and contemporary Japan The overarching question is about the preconditions of compromises The authors examine the role of compromise in diplomacy politics trade economics and everyday life Together they generate a comprehensive picture of the capacities and limitations of compromise in the past and today
