The Authority On? Child Safety Gary Martin Hays, Adam Weart, Mary Ellen Fulkus, 2012-11-30 What Would Your Child Do in these situations If your child was approached on the playground and asked if he could help find a lost puppy what would he do If you and your daughter became separated in the mall what would she do If your home catches on fire in the middle of the night would your children know what to do If he is being bullied in the bathroom at school or on the bus what should he do Do you really know how your child would respond or should respond or are you just guessing Have you ever asked him or her to find out Would you know what to ask or how to ask it Would you know what to discuss with your child in these situations The Authority On Child Safety How To Talk To Your Kids About Their Personal Safety Without Scaring Them is NOT just a book that tells parents how to keep their kids safe We want to make that point perfectly clear If you think that your kids will be safe because you bought and read a book about child safety then you are sadly mistaken What you learn and digest does not matter one bit unless your child also learns safety concepts and drills Then why should you buy it This is the first place to start with educating your child on how to be safe This is an interactive guide for parents to use to BEGIN the dialogue with their kids on how to be safe We can not be with our kids 24/7 We will not always be there to protect them At some point they need to be empowered to stand up for themselves and to be able to protect themselves Honestly ask yourself what are you doing for your child for your children right now that is helping them to be able to protect themselves when you are not around We are giving you a blueprint for you to use to start that process right here right now In this guide you will learn Why sticking your head in the sand and pretending crime does not exist is NOT a great way to protect your child or yourself Important crime statistics that cannot be ignored Why Stranger Danger should NEVER be taught to our kids Where the registered sex offenders live in your area hint The U S Dept Of Justice tells us there is on average one sex offender per square mile in the US Why your child is NEVER too young to learn safety concepts Why you should not be comfortable in thinking your child is safe because you never leave your kid alone with someone you don't know Why the Once A Year Safety Day programs in our schools are not working Why education is the key to keeping our kids safe HOW TO start the all important dialogue with your child about safety issues they may face including topics such as Abduction Prevention Bullying Prevention Good Bad Unwanted Touch Sexual Assault Prevention Home Safety Water
