Personality Theories Basic Assumption Research And Applications:

Current Research and Applications in Personality Theories Larry A. Hjelle,1992 Personality Theories Larry A. Hjelle,Daniel J. Ziegler,1992 A clear thorough and focused introduction to the key theories of personality This edition retains a distinctive presentation of theories on the framework of their underlying basic assumptions This edition has been thoroughly updated mixing research and personal applications in each chapter Some new theorists have been added and a new chapter covers research methods assessment techniques and ethical issues Now available with the third edition a current research application manual Hjelle Larry A. ... Personality Theories Larry A. Hjelle,Daniel J. Ziegler,1976 Personality Theories Salvatore R. Maddi,1980 Humanising Psychiatry and Mental Health Care Rachel Freeth,2007 This book explores in depth the link between modern psychiatric practice and the person centred approach It promotes an open dialogue between traditional rivals counsellors and psychiatrists within the NHS to assist greater understanding and improve practice Easy to read and comprehend it explains complex issues in a clear and accessible manner The author is a full time psychiatrist and qualified counsellor who offers a unique perspective drawing on personal experience Humanising Psychiatry and Mental Health Care will be of significant interest and help to all mental health professionals including psychiatrists and psychiatric nurses social care workers occupational therapists psychologists person centred counsellors and therapists Health and social care policy makers and shapers including patient groups will also find it helpful and informative Krishna's Industrial Economics & Principles of Management , Toward A Psychology of Persons William E. Smythe,2013-05-13 This closely integrated collection of essays constitutes a wide ranging and comprehensive attempt to understand persons within psychology a long lost enterprise The volume was inspired by the observation that contemporary psychology has become increasingly depersonalized in its conceptions and its methodology and has thereby lost touch with its traditional subject matter of human individuality and the nature of persons This development now threatens the integrity of psychology as a discipline Using both a critical and constructive approach the various contributors share two common objectives to explore the roots of depersonalization in modern psychology through systematic criticism of contemporary functionalist and neo functionalist approaches to articulate some alternative holistic interpretive and historical approaches to the psychology of persons Despite these common objectives the chapters reflect a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and approaches including cognitive science and neuroscience discursive psychology hermeneutics social constructionism semiotics rhetorical analysis and psychological aesthetics These essays do not converge on a unified psychology of persons but they do serve to reopen a form of discourse that has long been absent from mainstream psychology This volume emerged from the deliberations of the Western Canadian Theoretical Psychologists WCTP a group of scholars primarily from Western Canadian universities with shared interests in the history and theory of psychology From its founding in 1989 to the present the WCTP has been actively engaged in promoting and contributing to the development of theoretical psychology Over the past half dozen years scholars have greatly benefitted from the close collaboration and collegial support that participation in the WCTP makes possible. The annual meetings provide an opportunity for them to catch up on each other's work and also to pool their expertise to work on topics of shared interest.

Animals, Brains & Cultures Doug Fenwick, 2009-02-25 Using common everyday examples this book explains human and other animal nature and behavior in terms of a four component brain mind theory. It describes how all animals from reptiles to humans possess similar primitive core brain structures that control vital bodily functions and behavioral drives.

Psychology in Asia Catherine Tien-Lun Sun, Jason Tak-Sang Chow, 2024-03-26 Psychology in Asia An Introduction is the second edition of this introductory level textbook on psychology and human behavior written with an Asian focus. The book introduces the central tenets of psychology using examples and content which are culturally relevant and applicable to students in Asia. It covers essential topics of psychology including personality, human development, psychological disorders, gender and sexuality, emotion and positive psychology. Each chapter is accompanied by information relevant to an Asian cultural context and connected to the region's diverse heritage and history. For this second edition the content has been substantially updated. In addition to standard topics found in texts on introductory psychology this book includes chapters on the Tenets of Asian Psychology, Asian Philosophies and Behavior. The text includes features to help students familiarize themselves with the key terms that are defined in the page margins. It includes learning aids such as boxes that define theoretical and technical terms and the activities in each chapter encourage active learning and critical thinking. The authors also provide useful resources such as study questions, chapter outlines and references to journal articles that allow further reading. Students will benefit from an increased understanding of the concepts taught through the authors' user friendly academic writing style and colorful illustrations included throughout each chapter. Through this accessible text, undergraduate and upper undergraduate students of psychology will learn about core topics and classical studies that originate in the West but do so alongside the important contributions that Asian psychology makes to the field.

Psychology Leslie Swartz, Cheryl De la Rey, Norman Duncan (Ph. D.), 2004 This is a solid foundational undergraduate text written from a fresh and innovative perspective. The text is divided into ten sections covering various key theoretical areas in psychology. There are 41 chapters written by contributors representing universities across South Africa and in the United States and UK. A golden thread narrative is written by psychologist Kerry Gibson at the beginning of each chapter linking the concepts explained to the southern African scenario.
