The Peter Pan Syndrome Gillian Lyden,2010-03-23 Thinking about the recent discoveries about genetics I wondered what it might be like if governments decided to control how long we should live The aspect I chose is about increasing our lifespan but I know there is another side to this which is rather more sinister My story is set in the future where Gene Control apparently sets the ground rules in every country and civilisation in most areas is confined to huge domes with artificial weather systems Health both physical and mental is dealt with by the Government of each civilisation if necessary by altering peoples genes Should anything go wrong with genetic interference it is not unusual for people to disappear There are rebels who hate being controlled Some have escaped to Outside where plants grow uncontrolled and which is thought to be lawless backward and uncivilised However a majority of residents love the controlled weather system which never interferes with pleasurable activities it rains only at night has a moon sun and stars which appear to revolve around the system a crop growing facility and farming including horses cows poultry orchards etc People can live as long as they like for hundreds of years if desired and children can stay as children for as long as they and their parents wish There are robots for servants there is an education system and hospitals etc etc everything you could wish for However not everyone is happy with the situation the children in particular The story is about one family in particular Katie and Ian Stone their children Michael and Sarah and their experiences in and out of Gene Control Peter pan syndrome Mayu Sakai,2016 Peter Pan Syndrome Outlet,Outlet Book Company Staff,Random House Value Publishing Staff,1986-10-14 20 Something Manifesto Christine Hassler,2010-09-24 Surrounded by possibility but unsure of your direction You re not alone If you re in your twenties you re likely feeling the combination of the excitement of this defining decade and the pressure to figure out your entire life The thrill of newfound independence and opportunity can be quickly squelched by worry disillusionment or disappointment Like thousands of other twenty somethings you may have experienced what life coach and quarter life expert Christine Hassler calls an Expectation Hangover This manifesto explores the all important questions and life choices of these turbulent yet exciting years Twenty somethings may commiserate about the challenges they face but few resources offer practical lessons or suggestions In these pages quarter life men and women tell their stories sharing their successes and failures along with their frustrations and realizations The author s insightful commentary and take away suggestions provide the tools and skills you need to create change and direction in your life You ll recognize and articulate your personal goals paving the way to what you truly want Gender Warp Richard P.
